Melancholy Accident.—On Saturday night, the wife of Mr. Wm. Anthony of Red Head, went to a brook in the immediate vicinity of her residence, to fetch a pail of water, when the bank being covered with glare ice, she slipped in, the stream running strong at the time she was driven by its force under a bridge which covered it, and melancholy to relate, was then drowned before any of the inmates of the house knew of her misfortune.

THE American Sporting Chronicle, A New and Comprehensive Weekly Sporting Paper,

AT TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM. The Publisher of the American Turf Register and the Spirit of the Times will commence, on the 21st of March instant, a new weekly journal, entitled the AMERICAN SPORTING CHRONICLE, which, from the extent, novelty, and attraction of its contents, and its unprecedented cheapness, will commend itself to all classes of the community.

THE TURF.—The prominent design of the Chronicle will be to procure and give interest to the Sports of the Turf. To this end it will give reports of all the Races throughout the United States and Canada, with descriptions of the most important racing events in Great Britain and Continental Europe.

TROTTERING.—Constantly increasing attention is now paid to Trotting Horses in this country. A few years since it was exclusively confined to New York and Philadelphia, but Trotting Associations are now regularly organized in Boston, Baltimore, Cincinnati, St. Louis, New Orleans, Mobile, Montreal, and several other cities.

BLOOD STOCK.—All Importations of Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine, etc., and all important Sales of Stock at home and in England—selected essays on the Breeding and Management of Horses, etc., and a regular Review of Stallions, with pedigree, performance, etc., will be published.

FARMERS and BREEDERS will find their interests fostered and upheld in the Chronicle to the best of the editor's ability. In addition to a wide correspondence, he is in the receipt of all the best Agricultural Publications in the language, from which copious extracts will be made.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.—Being published at the office of the Spirit of the Times, the Chronicle will have the advantage of an infinite number of correspondents, at home and abroad, and so complete are the arrangements entered into, that its Sporting Intelligence will be unusually comprehensive, varied, and interesting, comprising all the On Dits in the Sporting World.

FIELD, RURAL, and AQUATIC SPORTS.—All the manly diversions which give zest to life will be appropriately regarded, and come in for a large share of the editor's attention. With this view, frequent extracts from 'Bell's Life in London,' and the English and other Sporting Magazines will be given, together with original details of all these recreations in this country.

It will suffice, that the Publisher is determined to make the Sporting Chronicle what its name imports, and that in its columns will be found, at intervals, the discussion and the narratives which pertain to Table listing various sports: Racing, Farming, Sailing, Trotting, Hunting, Pedestrianism, Blood stock, Shooting, Pugilism, etc.

NEWS, LITERATURE, &c.—Although the leading objects of the Chronicle are of a sporting cast, our readers may reply upon it that we shall not be behind hand in varied and elegant Literature, and the current news of the Day.

THINGS THEATRICAL.—As objects of lively interest, the Drama, Opera, and Ballet will demand the editor's best efforts. Without stint or measure, but with candor and impartiality, he will take cognizance of the novelties presented at our five different city Theatres, and also lay before his readers the Green Room Intelligence of the United States and Europe.

SALMAGUNDI.—This, the miscellaneous department of the Chronicle, will be so managed so as to give zest to all the rest. It will be composed of every variety of material; sober news, both foreign and domestic—remarks upon the fashions—fun and frolic—scraps and oddities; in fine, everything we can glean of wit and merriment, will be crowded into our columns.

Terms of Subscription.—For one year's Subscription, in advance 2 dollars. No name whatever will be placed on the list of subscribers until the money is paid.

Agents can be supplied with one hundred copies of the Sporting Chronicle for three dollars, by application to JOHN RICHARDS, proprietor and publisher of the Spirit of the Times and Turf Register, No 1, Barclay street New York.
