ELECTION CARDS.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland,

Gentlemen, His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor having agreeably to the spirit and meaning of the Quadrennial Act, passed at the last Session of the Legislature, very judiciously and correctly, in my opinion, dissolved the late House of Assembly, and new Writs having in consequence been issued for a General Election throughout the Province, I now beg leave, most respectfully, again, for the fourth time, to offer myself to your notice, as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election. As my public, as well as private character, must be now pretty well known to the Constituency of this County, you have the best possible means. I should think, of forming a pretty correct estimate of my capacity to serve you, and as to how far your suffrages will be safe in my hands. Under these circumstances, Gentlemen, I do not think it necessary to put forth a great many promises, stating what I will do if I am returned, and shall therefore content myself with simply assuring you, that should I be so fortunate as to be again honored with your confidence, the same independence of mind, zeal for the interest of my constituents, and exertion for the general prosperity of the country at large, that have, I hope, ever characterized my public conduct since I have had the honor of being one of your Representatives, will be adhered to and pursued by me in future. My politics and principles are the same. I love my country and its constitution, and shall always feel it my duty to lend my humble efforts to maintain its principles unimpaired; and at the same time will yield to none in firmness and exertion to support and uphold the constitutional rights of my fellow subjects.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, with great respect, Your most obedient Servant, J. A. STREET. Miramichi, December 12, 1842.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

Gentlemen, The late House of Assembly being now dissolved, I beg leave again to present myself to your consideration as a Candidate for your suffrages. From having been one of your Representatives for the last fifteen years, it will be unnecessary for me on the present occasion to make profession; suffice it therefore to say, by the past you must judge of the future,—by contrasting the internal improvements of this County with what they were in 1827, when I first became a Member of the Assembly, you can judge of the interest I have taken in its prosperity. Soliciting your support at the approaching Election, I have only further to add, whether in or out of the House, I shall always take a lively interest in your welfare.

With great respect, Gentlemen, I have the honor to be Your very obedient Servant, ALEXANDER RANKIN. Miramichi, 12th Dec., 1842.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

Gentlemen, Having been waited upon by a Committee appointed by the largest meeting that has been held in this County for many years, soliciting me to allow myself to be put in nomination as a Candidate, at the approaching Election, to Represent you in the General Assembly of the Province; and from many other flattering solicitations, I now beg to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages.

The short notice given for the formation of a New House, and the imperfect state of the travelling, will, I fear, preclude the possibility of my visiting many of you personally; but depend upon it, should you honor me with your confidence, that high trust shall be exercised, in every possible way, for the public welfare.

I have no private ends to serve—my interest is in common with yours. My public conduct has been before you for many years, I therefore have no professions to make, only—that all Classes shall be dealt with fairly. Agriculture, Lumbering pursuits, the Fisheries, Mechanical Arts and Commerce, and the Deranged Financial state of the Province, shall receive my best attention, and I shall not fail to urge that the strictest Economy be exercised by the house, consistent with the public service.

These are, Gentlemen, matters of the greatest importance, and shall have my immediate, and most serious attention. With these views I have the honor to be, Your Most Obedient Servant, JOHN T. WILLISTON. Miramichi, Dec. 20, 1842.
