

A BILL in amendment of the Laws now in force for regulating the Fisheries in the county of Northumberland.

Whereas from the great difficulty in enforcing the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of this Province, made and passed in the 39th year of the reign of his late majesty King George the 3rd, intituled 'an Act for regulating the Fisheries in the county of Northumberland,' by the Overseers of the Fisheries of the respective Parishes appointed under the provisions of the 3rd section of the said recited Act, as far as the same relates to what are commonly called the Outside Fisheries in the said River and Bay of Miramichi: the Fisheries in the said River have become much injured, and the Salmon Fisheries especially are likely to be destroyed.

SECTION 1st.—Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, that from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the government for the time being, annually, on or before the first day of April in each and every year, to appoint two or more fit persons, residents of the county of Northumberland, not being directly or indirectly engaged in or carrying on the Fisheries, to be Overseers of the Fisheries in the said County, from the upper end of Bay du Vin Island across to Neguac, at the upper end of Hay Island, and thence down on both sides to the outside of the Bay of Miramichi.

SECTION 2ND.—And be it enacted, that when and so soon as the said Overseers shall be so appointed by his Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the government for the time being, being first duly sworn to the faithful discharge of their duty before some Justice of the Peace for the said county, and any Justice of the Peace of the said county is hereby authorized and empowered to administer such oath; such Overseers respectively shall, and they are hereby jointly and severally, fully authorized and empowered to carry into effect all the provisions of the said Act, made and passed in the 39th year of the reign of his late majesty King George the 3rd, intituled 'an Act for regulating the Fisheries in the county of Northumberland,' and also the provisions of all other Acts now in force, or that may hereafter be in force for that purpose, so far as the same relates to the Fisheries of the River and Bay of Miramichi, from the upper end of Bay du Vin Island across to Neguac at the upper end of Hay Island, and thence down to the outside of the Bay, without regard to the Parish boundaries, so far as the said Act extends, in as full and ample a manner in every respect as the Overseers of Fisheries appointed by the Justices of the Peace of the said county, at their General Sessions, under the third section of the said in part recited Act, are authorized to enforce the said Laws within the limits of the respective Parishes. Provided always—that the powers and jurisdiction of the said Overseers shall not extend higher up the said River, than the limits above defined.

SECTION 3RD.—And be it enacted that the said Overseers or any of them, when so appointed and sworn as aforesaid, for the district aforesaid, shall have all the powers of enforcing, recovering and applying the forfeitures and penalties under the provisions of the said Act and all other Acts now in force, or that may hereafter be in force within the limits of the district for which they shall be so appointed as aforesaid, against any person or persons liable thereunto, and nets illegally set that are given to the Overseers of the Fisheries of the respective Parishes, in the said county, under the provisions of the said in part recited act or any other acts now in force, or that may hereafter be in force, for the preservation of the Fisheries in the said county.

SECTION 4TH.—And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, it shall not be lawful for the said Justices at their General Sessions, under the provisions of the 3rd section of the said in part recited act, or under any other law now in force, to appoint any Overseers of Fisheries for the district, or any part thereof for which the said Lieutenant Governor or person administering the government for the time being, by the provisions of this act is authorized to appoint Overseers: any thing in the said in part recited act to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 5TH.—And be it enacted, That this act shall continue and be in force until the day of which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and
