To the Freeholders of the County of

Northumberland, Gentlemen, As you must all be aware of my intention of again coming forward as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election, from my reply to the very flattering requisition from a large body of the constituency of this Coanty presented to me in April last, and published in the Gleaner of the 29th April last, Thave now only to remind you of such my intention. I beg leave to avail myself of this opportunity of soliciting your votes and interest, and to assure you that if I am honored with your confidence, it will ever be my ambition and earnest desire to show you by every honest means in my pow-er, that your confidence has not been muspleaded. Gentlemen, I have only further to add, that I trust none of my supporters will be induced to keep back from any apprehensions of personal violence on the part of my opponents, as they may rest assured that efficient means will be taken by the properly constitued authorities to preserve peace and protect your constitutional rights. I have the honor to be, Your very obedient, and very humble servant. J. A. STREET. Miramichi, 8th, July 1843.
