For several successive years the annual produce of the revenue fell short of the public expendiure.

I confidently trust that in the present year the public income will be amply sufficient to defray the charges upon it

I feel assured that in considering all matters connected with the financial concerns of the country, you will bear in mind the evil consequences of accumulating debt during the time of peace, and that you will firmly resolve to uphold that public credit, the maintenance of which concerns equally the permanent interests and the honor and reputation of a great coun-

In the course of the present year the oppor-tunity of giving notice to the Bank of England on the subject of the revision of its charter. It may be advisable that during this session of Parliament, and previously to the arrival of the period assigned for the giving of such notice, the state of the law with regard to the privileges of the Baak of England, and to other banking establishments, should be brought under your consideration.

At the close of the last session of Parliament, I declared to you my firm determination to maintain inviolate the Legislative Union between Great Britain and Ireland.

i expressed at the same time my earnest desire to ce-operate with Parliament in the adoption of all such measures as might tend to improve the social condition of Ireland, and to develope the natural resources of that part of the United Kingdom.

I am resolved to act in strict conformity with this declaration. I forbear from observations on events in Ireland, in respect to which proceedings are pending before the proper legal

My attention has been directed to the state of the law and practice with regard to the occupation of landin Ireland.

I have deemed it advisable to institute exten-

I commit to your deliberate consideration the various important questions of Public Policy which will necessarily come under your review, with fall confidence in your loyalty and wisdom, and with an earnest prayer to Almighty God to direct and favour your efforts to promote the welfare of all classess of my to promote the welfare of all classess of my people.

Acquittal of Mrs. Gilmour — The trial of Mrs. Christiana Cochran or Gilmour, for the marder of her husband—a case which excited great interest, both from the circumstances, and the panel's apprehension in New York, under the Ashburton treaty, occupied the High Court of Justiciary on Friday and Saturday week. Evidence was laid, on Friday, for the prosecution, at great length; and on Saturday, the jury were addressed by the Lord Advocate, and Mr Maitland for the prisoner. After a samming up from Lord Justice Clerk, the jury retired to consider their verdict, and in about an hour afterwards they returned into the court and by their chancellor returned the following and by their chancellor returned the following verdict:—" The jury, after careful and mature deliberation of the evidence before them in this cas, are unanimously of opinion, that John Gilmour died from the effects of arsenic; but they find that the charge is not proven against the panel at the bar as libelled."

The Conservatives in the agricultural districts fearing, we suppose, that the efforts of the League will ultimately be crowned with success, are now bestirring themselves in right good earnest, and are using every possible effort to counteract their Anti-corn Law movements, by the organization of an anti league. They have held meetings in most of the agricultural districts of meetings in most of the agricultural districts of England, and have seta subscription on foot, and succeeded in raising nearly ten thousand pounds. This movement might have done something to lengthen the life of the existing Corn Law, had it been commenced some months ago, but now It is to late.
