

THE TEMPERANCE TELEGRAPH.—The fact of our having before us to-day a neat and well "got up," little Temperance paper, bearing the above title, lately issued in St. John, "under the patronage of the several Temperance Societies in New Brunswick," leads us to hope that new and increased exertions are springing up in the hearts of the advocates of that very important movement. The terms of the Telegraph are 4s. per annum, in advance. We wish the proprietors, Messrs Smiler and Owen, every success.

HALIFAX.—The Scarlet Fever has been raging with fatal results, in that city of late; the papers say the cold weather has had no effect in "dissipating its direful influences."

A new paper, called the Morning Chronicle, issued tri-weekly from the Nova Scotian office, has made its appearance in that city.

H. M. ship Scylla arrived at Halifax on Thursday week, with specie for the Commissariat Department.

PASSENGERS.—In the bark Charlotte, sailed from Saint John for Liverpool, on the 19th inst.—Messrs Alex. Lowden, John Boyd, and Wm. Johnston, of Miramichi.

LOCAL.—Meetings of the "Miramichi Repeal Association," have been held during the past week at Newcastle and Renous River at which large sums have been collected for the Repeal cause.

We understand a Petition numerously signed by the inhabitants of Miramichi, has been forwarded to Head Quarters, calling upon the Assembly to abrogate the present Bankrupt Law of this Province. We were not favoured with a sight of the document.

A Meeting of the friends of the Temperance cause held on Monday evening in Chatham came to the conclusion of reorganising the Chatham Temperance Society.

The Cordicainers of Miramichi have had a movement among the trade during the week; the subject is not yet definitely known with us.
