Moffatt's Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters!

THE UNIVERSAL ESTIMATION in which the celebrated LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS are held is satisfactorily demonstrated by the increasing demand for them in every section of the Union, and by the voluntary testimonials to their remarkable efficacy, which are everywhere offered. It is not less from a deeply gratifying confidence that they are the means of extensive and inestimable good among his afflicted fellow creatures, than from interested considerations, that the proprietor of these pre-eminently successful medicines, is desirous of keeping them constantly before the public eye. The sale of every additional box and bottle is a guarantee that some persons will be relieved from a greater or less degree of suffering, and be improved in general health: for in no case of suffering from disease can they be taken in vain. The proprietor has never known or been informed of an instance in which they have failed to do good.—In the most obstinate cases of chronic disease, such as chronic dyspepsia, torpid liver, rheumatism, asthma, nervous and bilious head ache, costiveness, piles, general debility, serofulous swellings and ulcers, scurvy, salt rheum, and all other chronic affections of the organs and membranes, they effect cures with a rapidity and permanency which few persons would theoretically believe, but to which thousands have testified from happy experience. In colds and coughs, which, if neglected, superinduce the most fatal diseases of the lungs and indeed the viscera in general, these medicines, if taken but three or four days, never fail. Taken at night, they so promote the insensible perspiration, and so relieve the system of febrile action and feculent obstructions, as to produce a most delightful sense of convalescence in the morning,—and though the usual symptoms of a cold should partially return during the day, the repetition of a suitable dose at the next hour of bed time will almost invariably effect permanent relief, without further aid. Their effect upon fevers of a more acute and violent kind is not less sure and speedy if taken in proportionable quantity,—and persons retiring to bed with inflammatory symptoms of the most alarming kind, will awake with the gratifying consciousness that the fierce enemy has been overthrown, and can easily be subdued. In the same way, visceral inflammations, though long established, and visceral inflammations, however critical, will yield—the former to small and the latter to large doses of the LIFE PILLS,—and so also hysterical affections, hypochondriacism, restlessness, and very many other varieties of the Neurological class of diseases, yield to the efficacy of the PHENIX BITTERS.

The above Medicines are for Sale at the Store of Mr. JOSEPH SPRATT, in Chatham, who is appointed sole ent for their disposal in Miramichi.

Prospectus of a Paper to be called the QUEEN OF THE ISLES;

A Journal of British Political and Domestic Intelligence.

It is proposed in this Journal to give a full and satisfactory abstract of the British Newsw papers, in all matters therein contained which may be of interest and importance to the natives of the British Isles upon this Continent.

The extracts which will be made from the English Journals, will be invariably taken from those whose accounts of passing events are the most interesting and the most to be depended upon for their veracity, and will be comprised under the following heads, viz:—

1. GENERAL POLITICS.— Under the head of which will be given an abstract of weekly events connected with the Political World.

2. Parliamentary Matters.— In which the Debates in both Houses of Parliament will be given; and in cases of particular interest, they will be published verbatim, as far as the limits of the paper will permit.

3. Agriculture.— Which will comprise an account of all such improvements in matters connected with farming in England, Scotland, and Ireland, as may from time to time be made; while the connexion of this mighty branch of industry with trade and commerce will be kept steadily in view.

4. Trade and Commercial Intelligence.— Under this head will be contained extracts from the most able and authentic Journals, which will be duly collated and arranged to meet the wants of the reader in this hemisphere.

5. Law proceedings in the English Courts.— Comprising the most interesting trials in the courts of both Great Britain and Ireland.

6. Sporting Intelligence.— In which will be given a full account of Races, Steeple Chases, Fox Hunts, Coursing, Angling, Shooting, Yacht Intelligence, Rowing Matches, and all matters interesting to sportsmen.

7. Literary Notices, Selections, and Theatrical criticisms; as well as a register of the most remarkable Births, Marriages, and Deaths, as they may appear in the British papers.

The Queen of the Isles will, in consequence of the multiplicity of papers published on Saturday, be issued on Wednesday. Its price will be three dollars per annum, to be paid invariably in advance; as no order will be received unless accompanied by the necessary payment.

As we desire on all occasions to give our Albion subscribers the benefit of our other publications on the best possible terms, we have determined to supply the Queen of the Isles to them at one dollar per annum; but it must be understood that in all such cases this sum must be actually paid into the office without deduction of any kind, as we cannot open any account or give any credit upon such a trivial amount.

Persons thus taking both papers will have the advantage of receiving the news twice a week in consequence of the Queen of the Isles being published on Wednesday.

The paper will be printed with neat and clear type, on fair paper, in the quarto form, consisting of 8 pages, and published at the Albion office, No 3, Barclay street, New York.
