To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—Various circumstances prevented the possibility of my thanking you before this time for your politeness in sending me your Pills as you did. I now take this opportunity of sending you an order for the amount, and, at the same time, to add that your Pills have effected a cure of a disorder in my Liver and Stomach, which all the most eminent of the Faculty at which all the most eminent of the Faculty at home, and all over the continent, had not been able to effect; nay! not even the waters of Carlsbad and Marienbad. I wish to have another Box and a Point of the Ointment, in case any of my family should ever require either.

Your most obliged and obedient servant, A WONDERFUL CURE OF DROPSY OF advice without receiving any relief. Hearing advice without receiving any relief. Hearing of your Pills and Cintment, she used themwith such surprising benefit, that, in fact she has now given them up, being so well and quite able to attend to her household duties as fermerly, which she never expected to do again. I had almost forgotten to state that she was given up by the Faculty of insurable. by the Faculty as incurable. When she used to get up in the morning it was impossible to discover a feature in her face, being in such a featful state. This cure is entirely by the use of your medicines.

I am, Sir, yours, &c. &2., (Signed) THOMAS TAYLOR.

MOFFA'TT'S Life Pills & Phonix Eitters

The Universal Estimation in which the celebrated LIFE PILLS & PHENIX BITTERS.

are held, is satisfactorily demonstrated by the increasing demand for them in every section of the Union, and by the voluntary testimonals to their remarkable efficacy, which are everywhere offered. It is not less from a deeply gratifying confidence that they are the means of extensive and inestimable good a mong his afflicted fellow orealures, than from interested considerations, that the proprietor mong his afflicted fellow creatures, than from interested considerations, that the proprietor of these pre-eminently successful medicines is desirous of keeping them constantly before the the public-eye. The sale of every additional box and bottle is a guarantee that some personal than the public of the constant of t will be relieved from a greater or less degree of suffering, and be improved in general health, for in no case of suffering from disease can they be taken in vain. The proprietor has never known or been informed of an in stance in which they have failed to do good. In the most obstinate cases of chronic disease, such as chronic dyspepsia, torbid liver, rhenmatism, asthma nervous and bilious head ache. costiveness, piles, general debility, scrofulous swellings and Licers, scurvy, salt rheum, and all other enronic affections of the organs and membranes, they effect cures with a rapidity and permanency which few persons would theoretically believe, but to which thousands have testified from happy experience. In colds and coughs, which, if neglected, superinduce the most fatal diseases of the lungs and indeed the vicera in general, these medicines, if taken but three or four days, never fail. Taken at night, they so promote the insensible perspiration, and so relieve the system of febrile action and feculent obstructions, as to produce a most deligntful sense of convalescence in the morning—and though the usual symptoms of a cold should partially return during the day, the repetition of a suitable dose at the next hour of bed time, will almost invariably effect per-manent relief, without further aid. Their effect upon fevers of a more acute and violent kind is not less sure and speedy if taken in proportionable quantity—and speedy if taken in proportionable quantity—and persons retiring to bed with inflammatory spmptoms of the most alarming kind, will awake with the gra-tifying conscioueness that the fierce enemy has been overthrown, and can easily be subdued. in the same way, visceral targescence, though long establised, and visceral inflammations, however critical, will yield—the former to small, and the latter to large doses of the LIER -and so also hysterical affections, bypocondriacism, restlessness, and very many other varieties of the Neourotical class of dis eases, yield to the efficacy of the PHENIX

The above Medicines are for Sale at the Store of Mr THOMAS SPRATT, in Chatham, near the residence of the Hon. Joseph Cunard, who is appointed sole Agent for their disposal in Miramichi
