For Sale.

That VALUABLE PROPERTY on which the subscriber resides, situate between, and extending obliquely over two Trap Rock-hills, at the head of Chaleur Bay, adjoining the Town Plot of Dalhousie; containing about 280 acres superior soil, with a commodious Dwelling House and Out Houses, including a Fish store, smoke house, and cooper's shop. There are upwards of fifty acres under cultivation, nearly as much more that can at little expence be brought in, and the remainder is under a well mixed growth of wood. A part of it possesses the granted privileges of fishing, hunting, hawking, and lowling, with valuable Salmon Fishery, and it is also convenient to the Herring and Cod Fisheries, as well as to the County Town and Shipping Port of Dalhousie. The scenery on and around it is charming, and it affords facilities for sea bathing, forming altogether a most desirable country residence. Possession will be given at any time agreed upon. For further particulars enquire of the subscriber on the premises.

PASCHAL CHALFOUR. Dalhousie, May 1, 1845.

CARD,

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland,

GENTLEMEN,

BUSINESS of a pressing and painful nature renders it necessary that I should cross the Atlantic. I trust, however, that I shall be back again, and at my post, on the meeting of the Legislature, the approaching winter. Should, however, the House be dissolved in the meantime, as some people seem to anticipate, I have left instructions with my Friends to offer me again as a Candidate for your suffrage. There is no County in the Province, of which, in being one of the Representatives, I can feel so proud as that of Northumberland; and although I am in part removed therefrom, my heart and affections (next to my own family) are among you, and centered in Northumberland. There are my warmest and best friends; and whether absent or present, the prosperity of Northumberland will ever be uppermost in my mind; and although my main residence in future will probably be in Fredericton, I shall spend a good part of each year among you at Willow Brook, in Newcastle, and annually visit every part of the county.

That God may bless you all with health, happiness, and prosperity, is the fervent prayer of Your attached Friend

And Representative, J. A. STREET. Fredericton, N. B., 25th October, 1845.
