MOFFATT'S Life Pills & Phoenix Bitters

The Universal Estimation in which celebrated LIFE PILLS & PHOENIX BITTERS

are held, is satisfactorily demonstrated by increasing demand for them in every part of the Union, and by the voluntary testimonials to their remarkable efficacy, which everywhere offered. It is not less a deeply gratifying confidence that they are means of extensive and inestimable good among his afflicted fellow creatures, that interested considerations, that the prospect of these pre-eminently successful medicines, desirous of keeping them constantly before the public eye. The sale of every box and bottle is a guarantee that some will be relieved from a greater or less degree of suffering, and be improved in health, for in no case of suffering from any of the above mentioned ailments can they be taken in vain. The practice has never known or been informed of a case in which they have failed to do good. In the most obstinate cases of chronic ailments, such as chronic dyspepsia, torpid liver, matism, asthma nervous and bilious headache, costiveness, piles, general debility, swellings and ulcers, sorvy, salt rheum, and other chronic affections of the organic membranes, they effect cures with a permanency which few persons have theoretically believed, but to which they have testified from happy experience. Coughs, which, if neglected, suppose the most fatal diseases of the lungs and the vicera in general, these medicines, but three or four days, never fail. To-night, they so promote the insensible perspiration, and so relieve the system of febrile action and feculent obstructions; as to produce most delightful sense of convalescence in the morning—and though the usual symptoms should partially return during the repetition of a suitable dose at the end of a few days, will almost invariably effect permanent relief, without further aid. The effect upon fevers of a more acute and kind is not less sure and speedy if in proportionable quantity—and persons laboring to bed with inflammatory symptoms of the most alarming kind, will awake with a refreshing consciousness that the fierce enemy has been overthrown, and can easily be kept in the same way, visceral torpor, long established, and visceral inflammation however critical, will yield—the fever small, and the latter to large doses of the PILLS—and so also hysterical affections, pocondriacism, restlessness, and very other varieties of the Neurotical class, yield to the efficacy of the PHOENIX BITTERS.

The above Medicines are for Sale at the Store of Mr JOSEPH SPRATT, in Chatham, who is appointed sole agent for the disposal in Miramichi.

For Sale.

The LOT OF LAND lying on the north side of the South West branch of Miramichi in the parish of Ludlow, known as the Island No. 67, granted to Peter Duff, with the upper part of the Island No. 21, and the upper part of the Island No. 22, lying in front of the whole containing 180 acres; also front of which there is a considerable INTERVALE.
