

main road: this they did as far as Nap-pan bridge, but beyond that, we learn, the road was completely blocked up, with not a track of man or beast. The weather still remains unsettled, and we have had every day since Friday, occasional showers of snow. The ice on the river is not safe—several horses have got in during the week.

COUNTY OF WESTMORLAND.—A correspondent in this county writes as follows:

“Several cases of Typhus Fever have prevailed in Shediac during the past Autumn, and I am informed that Scarlet fever is raging fatally at the Bend of Petticodiac, three children of one family died of that disease during the past week. Up to the present the travelling is very bad.”
