Sands' Sarsaparilla.

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all Diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, or habit of the system. This Medicine has acquired a very extended and established reputation wherever it has been used, based entirely on its own merits, which its superior efficacy has alone sustained. It is now recommended and universally approved of by the most distinguished of the Medical Profession throughout our country, and, by its intrinsic medicinal value, the public generally (but the afflicted particularly) have been made acquainted with its usefulness, in the removal and cure of diseases having their origin in an impure state of the blood.

B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge.

This excellent medicine continues to be extensively used, and fresh proofs of its efficacy are being constantly afforded. Among others, the following certificate has been received by the Agents, and is submitted to the notice of the public.

Petite Riviere, Lunenburg County, March 24, 1846.

Seeing last Fall an advertisement in a newspaper stating a medicine called Fahnestock's Vermifuge, to be an effectual remedy for expelling worms from the system. I was thereupon induced to send for two bottles, and by way of trying its good qualities, gave three small doses in the morning, each an hour apart, (according to the directions) to a little girl, about four years old apparently in good health, and to our astonishment, during the afternoon of the same day, eighteen worms, from five to ten inches long, were dislodged. The other bottle was given to Mr. Hilton, a neighbour of mine, to be administered to one of his little boys, who, it was supposed, had worms, and when only one half the contents of the vial had been used, how were we surprised to find that no less than one hundred and thirty seven large worms had been passed. Being therefore convinced of the value of Fahnestock's Vermifuge as a worm exterminator. I would recommend it to the public as the most effectual medicine for expelling worms from the system that has ever come within my knowledge. I am very respectfully your obedient servt. J. R. HALL.
