The Pictorial Times AND THE Art-Union!

The proprietors of the PICTORIAL TIMES, anxious to promote by every means in their power, the Advancement of Literature and the Fine Arts, and to furnish an inducement to the public to aid them in their laudable endeavors, have determined to Return a Portion of the Profits of their paper to their ANNUAL SUBSCRIBERS, upon the following plan:

THE ART UNION OF LONDON

Is authorized by the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, to distribute annually

A NUMBER OF PRIZES

In Pictures of certain value; but the proprietors of the Pictorial Times being conscious of the fact, that, from the very mixed tastes of the subscribers, and the total absence of instruction, the Large Prizes must frequently fall into the hands of individuals who have neither the desire to retain them, nor the knowledge essential to a due appreciation of their merits, the pictures being sought for as articles of pecuniary value, to be converted into Money on the first opportunity, it is the desire of the proprietors of the Pictorial Times to correct this imperfection, and to give effect to the Art Union of London, by affording to the public an opportunity both of obtaining weekly, a Body of Sound Knowledge in the Sphere of Art, and annually the means of indulging the taste which such information will create.

The proprietors of the Pictorial Times have therefore much pleasure in announcing their intention to appropriate a portion of their profits to the annual subscribers to the Art Union of London, by presenting the sum of Five Hundred Pounds Sterling,

ON THE Drawing of the Art-Union Prizes In April, 1848.

To the holder of the First Drawn Largest Prize in the Art Union, if he at the same time be an annual subscriber to the Pictorial Times.

At the same time, the annual subscribers to the Pictorial Times, who are NOT SUBSCRIBERS TO THE ART-UNION, shall also participate in these

on the subjoined scale. The drawing of the Art Union Prizes is regulated in the following manner:—all the subscribers' names of the Art Union are placed in one wheel, and the number of the prizes in another wheel. We therefore propose to be guided by the number drawn, which entitles the holder to the first drawn largest prize of the Art Union. Thus, supposing that 890 should be the number drawn, we will then pay to the holder of our registered receipt, number 890, if he be at the same time an annual subscriber to the Art Union, the sum of £500; and we will also pay to the Ten subscribers whose receipts follow that number in our register books (whether they be subscribers to the Art Union or not) the sum of £100 each, repeating the same for every class of 100,000 subscribers thus: 890 (the largest prize in the Art Union) £500 891, or 10,891, or 20,891, or 30,891 100 892, or 10,892, or 20,892, or 30,892 100 893, or 10,893, or 20,893, or 30,893 100 894, or 10,894, or 20,894, or 30,894 100 895, or 10,895, or 20,895, or 30,895 100 896, or 10,896, or 20,896, or 30,896 100 897, or 10,897, or 20,897, or 30,897 100 898, or 10,898, or 20,898, or 30,898 100 899, or 10,899, or 20,899, or 30,899 100 900, or 10,900, or 20,900, or 30,900 100

And so on, thereby giving the sum of One Thousand Pounds sterling, to every class of 10,000 subscribers.

It will therefore be seen that our grand object is to uphold and promote the interests of the Art Union of London, by presenting to their more fortunate subscriber the large amount of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, in Gold or Bank Notes.

We trust that the public will clearly understand this to be an Unconditional Gift on our part, without any consideration whatever, as each party participating in these advantages will have only to pay one year's subscription to the paper; our only desire in undertaking this GREAT SCHEME, being to carry Improvement and Instruction, and at the same time a Rational Amusement, into the HOMES of our Fellow Countrymen.

The Pictorial Times has now reached its Ninth Volume, and from the great care bestowed upon its ILLUSTRATIONS, by first rate Artists, and the Talent employed in the Editorial Department, it has more than once received the high approbation of

and many leading members of the aristocracy. And it will be our constant study to continue to supply our patrons with a good Weekly Family Newspaper, uncontaminated by party politics, yet containing all the News of the Day, with splendid illustrations of passing events, which, if duly taken care of and bound up, will be invaluable hereafter as faithfully portraying the customs and manners of the present time; and forming illustrated historical record of passing events; and in addition to this (as the preceding part of this Prospectus shows) each annual subscriber may obtain the sum of One Hundred Pounds sterling; or, should he at the same time be a subscriber to the Art Union, he may receive a Free Gift of Five Hundred Pounds sterling.

The last gift of one thousand pounds for the year 1846, was presented to Mrs Jane Ruth eiford, of Sedgefield, near Stockton-on-Tees, an annual subscriber of £1 6 6, by the publisher of the Pictorial Times, on the 1st of June, 1846. The original receipt may be seen at the office of the Pictorial Times.

We trust that our Prospectus is sufficiently clear and distinct to show that it is not absolutely necessary to subscribe to the Art Union, to participate in the Free Gifts of a portion of our profits, as each annual subscriber to this paper may receive the sum of £100 sterling.

Subscriptions of £1 12s 6d per annum, can be paid through any Bookseller or News Agent in New Brunswick, who will obtain the registered receipts for the same, of Messrs. SIMMONDS & WARD, Colonial Agents, 6 Barge Yard, London.
