The Pictorial Times AND THE Art-Union!

The proprietors of the PICTORIAL TIMES, anxious to promote by every means in their power, the Advancement of Literature and the Fine Arts, and to furnish an inducement to the public to aid them in their laudable endeavors, have determined to Return a Portion of the Profits of their paper to their ANNUAL SUBSCRIBERS, upon the following plan:

THE ART UNION OF LONDON

Is authorized by the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, to distribute annually

A NUMBER OF PRIZES

In Pictures of certain value; but the proprietors of the Pictorial Times being conscious of the fact, that, from the very mixed tastes of the subscribers, and the total absence of instruction, the Large Prizes must frequently all into the hands of individuals who have neither the desire to retain them, nor the knowledge essential to a due appreciation of their merits, the pictures being sought for as articles of pecuniary value, to be converted into Money on the first opportunity, it is the desire of the proprietors of the Pictorial Times to correct this imperfection, and to give effect to the Art Union of London, by affording to the public an opportunity both of obtaining weekly, a Body of Sound Knowledge in the Sphere of Art, and annually the means of indulging the taste which such information will create. The proprietors of the Pictorial Times have therefore much pleasure in announcing their intention to appropriate a portion of their profits to the annual subscribers to the Art Union of London, by presenting the sum of

Five Hundred Pounds Sterling,

ON THE Drawing of the Art-Union Prizes

In April, 1848.

To the holder of the First Drawn Largest Prize in the Art Union, if he at the same time be an annual subscriber to the Pictorial Times.

At the same time, the annual subscribers to the Pictorial Times, who are NOT SUBSCRIBERS TO THE ART-UNION, shall also participate in these

FREE GIFTS,

Which may amount to many Thousand Pounds Sterling, on the subjoined scale. The drawing of the Art Union Prizes is regulated in the following manner:—all the subscribers' names of the Art Union are placed in one wheel, and the number of the prizes in another wheel. We therefore propose to be guided by the number drawn, which entitles the holder to the first drawn largest prize of the Art Union. Thus, supposing that 890 should be the number drawn, we will then pay to the holder of our registered receipt, number 890, if he be at the same time an annual subscriber to the Art Union, the sum of £500; and we will also pay to the Ten subscribers whose receipts follow that number in our register books (whether they be subscribers to the Art Union or not) the sum of £100 each, repeating the same for every class of 100,000 subscribers thus:

- 890 (the largest prize in the Art Union) £500
- 891, or 10,891, or 20,891, or 30,891 £100
- 892, or 10,892, or 20,892, or 30,892 100
- 893, or 10,893, or 20,893, or 30,893 100
- 894, or 10,894, or 20,894, or 30,894 100
- 895, or 10,895, or 20,895, or 30,895 100
- 896, or 10,896, or 20,896, or 30,896 100
- 897, or 10,897, or 20,897, or 30,897 100
- 898, or 10,898, or 20,898, or 30,898 100
- 899, or 10,899, or 20,899, or 30,899 100
- 900, or 10,900, or 20,900, or 30,900 100

And so on, thereby giving the sum of One Thousand Pounds sterling to every class of 10,000 subscribers.

It will therefore be seen that our grand object is to uphold and promote the interests of the Art Union of London, by presenting to their more fortunate subscriber the large amount of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, in Gold or Bank Notes.

We trust that the public will clearly understand this to be an Unconditional Gift on our part, without any consideration whatever, as each party participating in these advantages will have only to pay one year's subscription to the paper; our only desire in undertaking this GREAT SCHEME, being to carry Improvement and Instruction, and at the same time a Rational Amusement, into the HOMES of our Fellow Countrymen.

The Pictorial Times has now reached its Ninth Volume, and from the great care bestowed upon its ILLUSTRATIONS, by first rate Artists, and the Talent employed in the Editorial Department, it has more than once received the high approbation of

and many leading members of the aristocracy. And it will be our constant study to continue to supply our patrons with a good Weekly Family Newspaper, uncontaminated by party politics, yet containing all the News of the Day, with splendid illustrations of passing events, which, if duly taken care of and bound up, will be invaluable hereafter as faithfully portraying the customs and manners of the present time, and forming illustrated historical Record of passing events; and in addition to this (as the preceding part of this Prospectus shows) each annual subscriber may obtain the sum of One Hundred Pounds sterling; and should he at the same time be a subscriber to the Art Union, he may receive a Free Gift of Five Hundred Pounds sterling.

The last gift of one thousand pounds for the year 1846, was presented to Mrs Jane Ruthford, of Sedgefield, near Stockton-on-Tees, an annual subscriber of £1 6 6, by the publisher of the Pictorial Times, on the 1st of June, 1846. The original receipt may be seen at the office of the Pictorial Times.

We trust that our Prospectus is sufficiently clear and distinct to show that it is not absolutely necessary to subscribe to the Art Union, to participate in the Free Gifts of a portion of our profits, as each annual subscriber to our paper may receive the sum of £100 sterling.

Subscriptions of £1 12s 6d per annum can be paid through any Bookseller or News agent in New Brunswick, who will obtain the registered receipts for the same, of

RELIEF WARRANTED.

Great New England Remedy for Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints!

Hunter's celebrated Pulmonary Balsam or Cough Syrup.

This pleasant and agreeable Syrup is now being sold in vast quantities, for the very good reason that almost universal relief has been found by the thousands who have made use of it for coughs, colds, and lung complaints, within the past year.

It comes from a quarter where cases of consumption have been most frequent, and where it has heretofore been most fatal in its termination, owing to an ever changing climate. It is a scientific preparation, having been got up by one of the most skillful and successful physicians in New England.

Hunter's Pulmonary Balsam

Is a combination of ten distinct articles of medicine, each of which taken separately would be of service to a person afflicted with a cough or lung complaint. It is comparatively a new article, although it has been used for years in an extensive practice, with unparalleled success. Yet it is not more than one year since it has been put up in its present form for the purpose of circulating it. During this short time, an almost incredible amount of it has been sold, whilst little effort has been made to increase its sale. It has depended upon its own merits, and thousands have been relieved and cured.

At one establishment in Maine, 5 thousand bottles have been sold at retail within the last twelve months. More than fifty individuals who were pronounced decided and marked cases of consumption, in the city of Bangor and vicinity, have been entirely cured by the use of Hunter's Balsam. Frequent cases have occurred where strangers journeying for health, and passing where the article was kept, have been induced by the recommendations of others to purchase a bottle, and after using it, have sent from two to three hundred miles for it.

Hunter's Pulmonary Balsam is an agreeable syrup, and is warranted an effective remedy for coughs, hoarseness, colds, pain in the breast, influenza, hard breathing, liver and lung complaints, difficult expectoration. For adults and children in cold climates and warm. It has remained to a late day to discover an article so admirably adapted to these complaints, so powerful and effectual, and yet so perfectly innocent and mild. A single trial of it will do more to convince all of its merits than all they can see or hear on the subject. It is quite certain that no injury has ever been known to arise from its free use. An uncommon fact is, that this remedy is a syrup, palatable and pleasant to the taste. Children take it with the greatest readiness.

600,000 Boxes sold the past year.

Indian Dyspepsia Pills,

For cure of costiveness, acidity of the stomach, bilious habits, headache, dizziness, heart burning, pain in the side, lung and liver complaints.

Dyspepsia and Indigestion,

With costiveness, acidity of the stomach, heart burnings, bilious complaints, producing headache, pain in the side, loss of appetite, and general debility, can be remedied, removed, and entirely cured by the use of the Indian Dyspepsia pills. These pills have effected the most astonishing cures in hundreds of cases of the above complaints, and are an invaluable remedy, in an especial manner, for Dyspepsia. They are a mild and gentle Cathartic, operating mostly upon the blood, cleansing and purifying the same, and causing the digestive organs to perform their appropriate organs with regularity.

Costiveness.

Habitual costiveness is, if not removed in time, a cause of more than half of the disorders and pains to which humanity is subject. The medicines too generally had recourse to, do more harm than good, as they weaken the peristaltic action of the bowels, and thus aggravate instead of removing the complaint.

Also in all bilious diseases, attended with pain in the side and right shoulder blade, with a dull, sallow countenance. In all Diarrhoeas, ague and fever, bilious fever, and sick head ache, they are an invaluable remedy. For purifying the blood, we do not believe these pills have their equal in the world.
