Notice.

Whereas much loss of property, trouble and expense, have for a number of years past been borne by the undersigned, as well as others, in consequence of Surveys of Lumber made at Boistown, the Forks, Indian town, &c., &c. by persons whose greed to engross the whole of the surveying will not permit them to remain in the tideway.—Notice is therefore hereby given to all persons calling themselves surveyors of Lumber, that the subscribers will not deem themselves liable for the survey of any Logs or Timber, made prior to their arrival at the usual or agreed place of delivery with the Lumberers, and shall not hold themselves accountable for such surveys without their knowledge or consent, even should the party bringing them to Market have allowed an interference.
