

fairs in this colony, with reference to the Lieutenant Governor, was duly signed and forwarded to His Lordship, on Saturday morning last. As the intended departure of Sir Henry Huntly was never officially announced, and the fact was only generally known just as the Electra was about to sail, it was found impossible to furnish the Lieutenant Governor with a copy of the same, he having left the Island without any public notification.

Mexico.—The American papers furnish some conflicting intelligence from the seat of war in this country:—

Accounts from Vera Cruz to the 21st August reached New Orleans on the 29th. News had reached the former place that the vanguard of Gen. Scott's Army had arrived at Ayotla, twenty miles from the capital, on the 13th, to which date not a hostile gun had been fired.

A letter to the New Orleans Picayune asserts that there is no truth in this rumour, and the writer seems confident that the advance reached Ayotla, as stated, without loss.

The last division of the United States army, numbering 4000 men, left Puebla on the 10th August—Major Tally's command is said to have gone on in safety beyond Jalapa. Capt. Well's party were compelled to fight their way to the National Bridge, and made an attempt to pass it, but found all the heights occupied by Guerillas, who opened a heavy fire, killing nearly all the mules and horses, and forcing the whole party to retire without their waggons, except one with the officer's baggage. Almost every thing was left in possession of the Mexicans. The Americans had five or six men killed, two or three wounded, and several died subsequently of fatigue.

A detachment of twelve dragoons, accompanied by Surgeon Cooper, previous despatched by Wells to the Bridge, to carry a report to Lally, had not been heard from, and it was supposed that the whole party had fallen into the hands of the Mexicans.

Pictou.—We never remember our harbour to have presented a scene of greater activity than it does at present. Besides the usual number of vessels engaged in the coasting trade, and some large ships loading for British markets, and some just arrived, there are now no less than 70 vessels, British and American, entered at the Mining Company's office, South Pictou, for cargoes of coal; many of these are vessels of large tonnage.—Eastern Chronicle.

FROM THE RIVER PLATE.—Advices received at Boston from Buenos Ayres announce the intelligence of the failure of the English and French Envoys to effect an adjustment of the differences between the Republics of Buenos Ayres, and Uruguay. The agitation which prevailed at Montevideo on the 1st of July, on the receipt of the news from Buenos Ayres, was of the deepest kind; and the result was deplored by all, though anticipated by many. The negotiations were broken off on the night of the 29th of June. The two plenipotentiaries have demanded their passports, and according to some letters, have received them.

The intervening ministers had retired from Montevideo, and the French forces had closely blockaded Buenos Ayres, and were on the point of taking some vessels that were intending to sail.

A schooner was taken by the boats of the brig Pandour, which received some shots from the shores.—The English forces remained entirely inactive on the 7th at night.
