

It appears they imagine they have a right so to do. The sooner they are undeceived in this matter, by the due course of law, the better, for we are apprehensive that some of them will be made to smart by a process more speedy than a magistrate's court. The principal ringleaders are lads from 16 to 18 years of age, and were the magistrates to wake up from their long lethargy, and bestir themselves in this matter, the evil would be speedily remedied, and the guilty parties justly punished.

OUR MARKETS.—Up to the present time, our market has been very sparingly supplied with country produce. The owners of the few sleds which have been in, have realised high prices for their produce.

HAYTI.—The new Constitution of this republic declares that the Roman Catholic religion shall be the religion of the state.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—An account of the Wesleyan Missionary Meetings will appear in our next number.

GRAHAM'S AMERICAN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—We have been kindly furnished by the publishers of this truly excellent, and elegantly embellished periodical with a copy of the January No. We copy the following from the Prospectus for 1847.

GRAHAM FOR 1847.

At the head of the Periodicals of the World, in point of Circulation and Popularity.

A New Novel by Cooper.

"The Islets of the Gulf," a powerful Sea Story.

In the best style of the Author of "The Red Rover," "Water Witch," &c.

We have the pleasure of being able to announce to the 50,000 readers of Graham's Magazine, that we commence the publication in the November number of Graham's Magazine, of a new Novel by James Fenimore Cooper, entitled "The Islets of the Gulf," a Sea Novel, written in the very best style of that accomplished novelist. This novel will run through twelve or fourteen numbers of "Graham," and we predict for it a run, unequalled by any thing Cooper has ever written.

Subscribers to the January volume of the Magazine will receive the entire sheets of the "Islets of the Gulf," which commences in November. It is understood that the Novel will make from ten to fifteen pages extra, in each number of the Magazine, so that subscribers will receive this novel in addition to the usual quantity of reading matter in Graham. The publishers have given and with the premiums, $1000 for prizes, Graham will undoubtedly excel all the Magazines for 1847.

ELEGANT PARIS FASHIONS IN EVERY NUMBER.

While all the other monthly periodicals are crumbling to decay, and resorting to every expedient to save themselves from destruction, "Graham" pursues the even tenor of its way, proudly at the head of the periodical literature of the day—with its 50,000 readers, gradually widening its influence, and extending its circulation. The policy adopted in this magazine, of giving the best both in literature and art, has established it upon the secure basis of public confidence.

We have resolved, so far as "Graham" is concerned, to give a proper direction to the popular taste; and propose in the coming volume greatly to amplify the literary department of the work—to engage none but the very best writers—to open a field of young writers of merit—and, in fine, to cultivate a National Periodical Literature, which shall command respect at home and abroad.

FOR THE NEW VOLUME.—In addition to the host of able writers who have enriched our pages by their productions we shall have the advantage of being able to publish some of the most brilliant articles that have ever appeared in our language.

The lowest Terms for 1847.—Three Dollars per annum for a single copy, or two copies Yearly for five dollars, invariably in advance, post paid.

For ten dollars Cash, free of postage, five copies of Graham's Magazine, or Graham's Magazine and Five Copies of Neal's Saturday Gazette.

For twenty dollars cash, eleven copies of the Magazine will be forwarded, and a copy gratis to the Postmaster or others forwarding the money. Address, post paid.

Sands' Sarsaparilla.

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all Diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, or habit of the system.

This Medicine has acquired a very extended and established reputation wherever it has been used, based entirely on its own merits, which its superior efficacy has alone sustained. It is now recommended and universally approved of by the most distinguished of the Medical Profession throughout our country, and, by its intrinsic medicinal value, the public generally (but the afflicted particularly) have been made acquainted with its usefulness, in the removal and cure of diseases having their origin in an impure state of the blood.

B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge.

This excellent medicine continues to be extensively used, and fresh proofs of its efficacy are being constantly afforded. Among others, the following certificate has been received by the Agents, and is submitted to the notice of the public.

Petite Riviere, Lunenburg County,

March 24, 1846.

Seeing last Fall an advertisement in a newspaper stating a medicine called Fahnestock's Vermifuge, to be an effectual remedy for expelling worms from the system. I was thereupon induced to send for two bottles, and by way of trying its good qualities, gave three small doses in the morning, each an hour apart, (according to the directions) to a little girl, about four years old apparently in good health, and to our astonishment, during the afternoon of the same day, eighteen worms, from five to ten inches long, were dislodged. The other bottle was given to Mr. Hilton, a neighbour of mine, to be administered to one of his little boys, who, it was supposed, had worms, and when only one half the contents of the vial had been used, how were we surprised to find that no less than one hundred and thirty seven large worms had been passed. Being therefore convinced of the value of Fahnestock's Vermifuge as a worm exterminator. I would recommend it to the public as the most effectual medicine for expelling worms from the system that has ever come within my knowledge.

I am very respectfully your obedient servt.
