HUGH MORELL, P. M.

GRAHAM FOR 1847.

At the head of the Periodicals of the World, in point of Circulation and Popularity.

A New Novel by Cooper.

"The Isles of the Gulf," a powerful Sea Story.

In the best style of the Author of "The Red Rover," "Water Witch," &c.

We have the pleasure of being able to announce to the 50,000 readers of Graham's Magazine, that we commence the publication in the November number of Graham's Magazine, of a new Novel by James Fenimore Cooper, entitled "The Isles of the Gulf," a Sea Novel, written in the very best style of that accomplished novelist. This novel will run through twelve or fourteen numbers of 'Graham,' and we predict for it 'a run,' unequalled by any thing Cooper has ever written.

Subscribers to the January volume of the Magazine will receive the entire sheets of the "Isles of the Gulf," which commences in November. It is understood that the Novel will make from ten to fifteen pages extra, in each number of the Magazine, so that subscribers will receive this novel in addition to the usual quantity of reading matter in Graham. The publishers have given

$1200 FOR THE NOVEL, and with the premiums, $1000 for prizes, Graham will undoubtedly excel all the Magazines for 1847

ELEGANT PARIS FASHIONS IN EVERY NUMBER.

While all the other monthly periodicals are crumbling to decay, and resorting to every expedient to save themselves from destruction, "Graham" pursues the even tenor of its way, proudly at the head of the periodical literature of the day—with its 50,000 readers, gradually widening its influence, and extending its circulation. The policy adopted in this magazine, of giving the best both in literature and art, has established it upon the secure basis of public confidence.

We have resolved, so far as "Graham" is concerned, to give a proper direction to the popular taste; and propose in the coming volume greatly to amplify the literary department of the work—to engage none but the very best writers—to open a field of young writers of merit—and, in fine, to cultivate a National Periodical Literature, which shall command respect at home and abroad.

FOR THE NEW VOLUME.—In addition to the host of able writers who have enriched our pages by their productions we shall have the advantage of being able to publish some of the most brilliant articles that have ever appeared in our language.

The lowest Terms for 1847.—Three Dollars per annum for a single copy, or two copies Yearly for five dollars, invariably in advance, post paid.

For ten dollars Cash, free of postage, five copies of Graham's Magazine, or Graham's Magazine and Five Copies of Neal's Saturday Gazette.

For twenty dollars cash, eleven copies of the Magazine will be forwarded, and a copy gratis to the Postmaster or others forwarding the money. Address, post paid.

GEO. R. GRAHAM & CO., 129 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
