

And then? asked the holy man.
 And then, said the youth, and then—
 and then—I shall die.
 Here Filippo lifted his voice and again asked, 'And then?' Whereupon the young man made no answer, but cast down his head, and went away. This last 'And then?' had pierced like a flash of lightning into his soul, and he could not get quit of it. Soon after he forsook the study of the law, and gave himself up to the ministry of Christ, and spent the remainder of his days in his service.
 The question which Filippo Neri put to the young lawyer, is one which we should put frequently to ourselves. When we have done all that we are doing, even supposing that all our dreams are accomplished, that every wish of our heart is fulfilled, still we may ask, What will we do, what will be then? Whenever we cast our thoughts forward never let them stop short on his side of the grave; let them not stop short at the grave itself; but when we have followed ourselves thither, and have seen ourselves laid therein, still ask ourselves the searching question, And then?

EUROPEAN NEWS.

WILLMER & SMITH'S EUROPEAN TIMES OFFICE, JULY 1, SECOND EDITION.

We have received further accounts from Paris. Several changes have taken place in the new Ministry. Admiral Le Blanc declined the office of Minister of the Marine, and M. Bastide Minister of Foreign Affairs, had been appointed in his place. General Bédou had been appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs.

M. Marie, late member of the Executive Government, is appointed President of the Assembly, in the place of Senard, the numbers being for M. Marie 414 votes, and for Dulaure 297 votes.

The Democratic Pacific, of the 29th ult. which strongly recommended General Cavaignac as the future President of the Republic, was extensively circulated in Paris gratis. Every representative, as he entered the Assembly, had a copy thrust into his hand.

A correspondent usually well informed, thus gives his views as to the present state of affairs in Paris:—The Republicans and the Revolutionists of the 24th Feb. are so much alarmed at the great influence which the members of the Thiers party are gaining in the Assembly, that they are most anxious the constitution should be passed without delay. They are determined to have General Cavaignac President of the Republic, and many of them express their readiness to appoint him dictator. There is in fact, every appearance at the present moment of the Republic dwindling, even before the passing of the Constitution, into a military Government.

On the new Ministry being announced in the Assembly, the names were all received with favour, with the exception of that of M. Carnot, whose celebrated aphorism has not been forgotten, that 'education was not requisite to make a good representative.'

More than 30,000 stand of arms have already been seized from the insurgents, and carried into the fort at Vincennes.

Assassinations take place in great numbers in the quarters where the discontented population reside, and generally at night in the streets.

The insurgents although conquered are by no means subdued, and it is not improbable but that they may attempt to renew the struggle. At present however, they confine their attempts to poisoning, and secret murders.

Courts-martial were being held on the prisoners as rapidly as possible.

At the meeting of the Assembly on Thursday, three million of francs were voted to the national guard and one million to the garde mobile. The son of General Negrier was nominated sub-lieutenant in the 7th regiment of the line, and a pension of 3000 francs a year given to the widow, revertible to the children of the general.

On one of the insurgents was found the following draft of a decree written in pencil:—Art. 1. All the citizens who pay more than 1200 in taxes, are deprived of their civil and political rights for ten years. Art. 2. All the property, both real and personal, belonging to citizens who have exercised public functions of any nature since 1815, is confiscated. Art. 3. The constitution of France is that of 1793. Art. 4. The army is disbanded.

The Memorial de Rouen says:—Yesterday morning, when the roll of the liberated convicts on surveillance at Roan was called over, it was found that 800 were absent. This is a very significant fact.

The estimates of killed and wounded vary materially. Some accounts give 15,000 total killed and wounded on both sides, whilst others give only 10,000. The number will, we have no doubt, exceed 15,000. Only 40,000 insurgents it now appears, were engaged in the struggle.

Some rumours are afloat that, ere a week elapses, MM. Lamartine, Ledru Rollin, Louis Blanc, Cavaignac, and Lefrançois, will be arrested. It is impossible to vouch for their accuracy.

AUSTRIA.

The announcement, that the Austrian Government had accepted the Mediation of Great Britain in the settlement of the Italian States, in our postscript last week, is confirmed.

A great excitement prevails among the workmen of Vienna, who though employed and supported by the State continue creating disturbances and making the most unjust and exorbitant demands. In some partial outbreaks the national guards have acted with great energy, and captured some of the ring-leaders.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

The Niagara, one of the new mail steamers, arrived at Halifax on the evening of the 10th inst., after a very speedy run, across the Atlantic of nine days. The mail was received here on Friday last, and we have obtained files of papers to the 1st of the month. The news is highly important. Paris has again been the theatre of a most sanguinary revolution, which, the British papers report, for 'horrible atrocity, and devastating carnage' surpasses the dreadful massacre of St. Bartholomew in 1572, and the most fearful scenes transacted during the bloodiest period of the reign of terror.

We have devoted a very large space to extracts, which embrace a very copious summary of the events as they occurred in that city up to the latest dates, compiled principally from Willmer & Smith's European Times. We have also gleaned considerable matter of interest, respecting affairs in Britain and Ireland, as well as on the Continent. Our Agricultural papers represent the weather as being highly propitious for the labours of the husbandmen, and the crops, particularly of grain and potatoes, promise an abundant harvest.

Trade continues much depressed, and very likely will continue so, until tranquillity is restored to the European nations, of which there appears but slight prospect at present.

FREDERICTON.—The Novascotian contains a paragraph stating—that the London Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, have voted the sum of £1000 towards the erection of a Cathedral at Fredericton, New Brunswick.

COUNTY KENT.—We understand several individuals in this County have joined together and purchased a Mackeral Seine of the largest description, from the American Net and Twice Manufacturing in Boston, and intend prosecuting this fishery the coming season. We wish them success in their enterprise.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—A distressing accident occurred in Chatham on Tuesday morning last. While Mr. James Patterson, Sen. was out in the river in a canoe picking up drift wood, his frail bark upset, and before any assistance could reach him, he sunk. His body was recovered a short time after. Efforts were made to resuscitate it, but they proved unavailing. An inquest was held on his remains before Martin Cranney, Esqr., Coroner, when a verdict of Accidental Death was returned.

QUEBEC.—By a return from the Medical Superintendent at Grosse Isle, to the 1st July, it appears that the number of deaths at that establishment up to that date was 153.

The Gazette has the following alarming announcement:

We stop the press to warn people residing at the foot of Cape Diamond, that a long and deep chasm has been formed inside the outer wall, on the brow of the cape, and that a large portion of the rock is likely to tumble down.

LECTURE IN NAPPAN.—Mr. CAIR is about to redeem his pledge to our Nappan neighbours, and will deliver a Lecture on AGRICULTURE, in the School-room in that settlement, occupied by Mr. Howe, on the afternoon of THURSDAY, the 20th inst. Hour of commencement, four o'clock, precisely. As the building is roomy, we hope to see a large company present.

CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT.—We are indebted to the New Brunswick for the following paragraph.

H. Bowyer, Esq. late Collector is placed on the retired List:—and Messrs. Stringer and Walker on the Redundant List. James Sayre Esq., late sub-Collector at Dorchester, goes on the Retired List. John Wright, Esq., late sub-Collector at Miramichi, is placed on the Redundant List.

P. W. Desbrisay, situated on his Wharf.

PRINCE EDWARD'S ISLAND.—We are sorry to learn that a good deal of destitution exists in this colony, particularly in the rural districts. The Executive Government have advertised for tenders for a supply of 600 barrels of Indian Corn meal, for the relief of the sufferers.

UNITED STATES.—Law Reform.—A new code of procedure, making a clean sweep of all the old forms and technicalities of practice, was adopted at the last Session of the New York Legislature, and came into operation on the 1st inst. The New York Sun, says, 'much to the regret of 300 pettifoggers in this city, who have hitherto lived by discovering misspelt words, it's without dots, and such like petty irregularities in legal forms, or, as their profession is sonorous named, Chamber Practice. Under the new code they cannot earn their salt. They now go mourning about the City Hall and refuse to be comforted. Great numbers of them will migrate westward, and the remainder will have to go to work. There is no other course. They cannot live under the reformed practice.'

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—In compliance with a requisition forwarded to the Grand Division of the Province of New Brunswick, Northumberland Division, No. 37, of this province, was opened in Chatham, in due form, on Tuesday evening 11th instant, by DGWP, John Hea, jun. of York Division, assisted by members of the Bathurst Division of Fredericton, the Victoria Division of St. John, and the Chubucto Division of Halifax.

After the opening and initiating ceremonies had been gone through with, the election of officers took place as follows: John Fraser was elected W.P., Benjamin Millar, W.A., Joseph R. Hen, R.S., John Alexander, A.R.S., Robert Jackson, F.S., Thomas Spratt, T. William, W. Ward, C. Andrew Duncan, A.C., Sydney P. Faile J.S., Samuel Burdick, O.S., and George B. Bell, took the chair of the P.W.P.

We are informed that since the Division was opened several initiations have taken place, and that the prospects of the order in this place are very encouraging. We wish it every success.

QUEEN'S VISIT TO IRELAND.—A late number of the Han's Telegraph says:

Her Majesty, Prince Albert and suite, will arrive at Osborne on the 5th July, and on the 10th, escorted by the squadron under the command of Sir Charles Napier, proceed in the royal yacht Victoria and Albert to Dublin. The Castle and Phoenix Lodge, Dublin, are preparing for the reception of the Sovereign. The Telegraph is a paper usually remarkable for correct intelligence.
