WASHINGTON COUNTY

Mutual Insurance Company OF GRANVILLE, NEW YORK.

In consequence of misrepresentations frequently and unjustifiably repeated in this city and neighbourhood, it becomes necessary to state a few facts.

The Company has never stopped payment, nor been discontinued by order of the New York Legislature—on the contrary, it was decided by the Supreme Court of New York on the 4th October instant, "That it was a valid, existing Corporation, and that the extension of their Charter for thirty years is in all respects regular and constitutional."—It was at the same time proved "That their business was now gigantic, numbering over One Hundred Thousand Members, with a guaranteed capital of over One Million of Dollars."

One small assessment only has been levied on the members in Seven Years, and that call has been promptly met with but few exceptions.

They do not owe one cent on matured claims, and have a Cash fund of Fifty Thousand Dollars in the Banks of Troy and Vermont to meet claims that may arise.

The number of Policies issued during the past three months alone is 1282. The whole number issued is 121,500. The following amongst other influential men allow their names to be used as references—Hon. Samuel Nelson, at Washington, D. C., one of the Chief Justices of the U. S.; Hon. W. Upham, U. S. Senator; Willis Hall, Esq., late Attorney General for the State of New York.

On the 6th October instant, the Annual Election of Directors took place. The Board is formed of highly respectable and influential men.

A Report of the standing and means of the Company, with accounts of receipt and expenditure up to the 1st October inst., is now in press and will shortly be ready for circulation. The cause and particulars of the slander with other information can be obtained by Policy holders and others, on application to the subscriber,
