International Journal.

Arrangements are in progress by a number of Mercantile gentlemen, to issue at an early day, to be devoted to the strenuous advocacy of a reciprocity trade between the United States and the British North American Colonies—increased of Railway and Steamboat communication between the two countries—the presentation of the resources of the Colonies to capitalists in the United States—weekly review and prices current of American goods required in the colonial markets, and of colonial produce, &c., shipped to American ports—and all general Commercial intelligence touching the interests of the rapidly increasing trade between the two countries.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL,

The JOURNAL will be handsomely printed on a large folio sheet, at $2.00 per annum in advance. A reasonable space will be devoted to advertisements of goods required in the Colonial trade, and other interests connected with the objects of the paper.

The proprietors respectfully solicit from American and Colonial Correspondents, articles containing statistics of the trade between the States and the Colonies—the mines, minerals, timber, fisheries, agriculture, &c., of the Provinces—the manufactures, public institutions, schools, &c., of the States, and facts on all subjects connected with the reciprocal commerce of the two countries. Communications, POST PAID, to the "International Journal, Boston," (giving the editor, confidentially, the writers' names,) will receive faithful attention.
