FINE ARTS.

FINE ARTS.—We have pleasure in directing public attention to a number of Oil Paintings, the work of Mr M. Anderson, portrait painter, to be seen at his rooms over the North American Clothing store, in King-street; they have only to be seen to challenge the admiration of every lover of art. We are sorry to learn that in consequence of ill health, we are about losing from our community a gentleman possessing artistic abilities of so high an order as those displayed by Mr A. in the collection we have inspected; and we trust that in changing his residence he may find, not only renovated health, but a professional appreciation to which his talents as an artist so justly entitle him.—New Brunswick.

FINE ARTS.—We would call the attention of lovers of the Fine Arts to a collection of Paintings now to be seen at the studio of Mr M. Anderson, Portrait Painter, in King Street consisting of a number of Historical and other subjects. We are assured by connoisseurs, that these Paintings possess merits of a high order and reflect great credit on the artist, who, we are sorry to learn, is about leaving St. John, in consequence of ill health. We recommend an inspection of the Pictures, as they are well worthy the attention of people of taste, and so favourable an opportunity may not again occur, of securing a work of art, possessing such legitimate claims to admiration.—Morning News.

MR. ANDERSON is now in Chatham, where he purposes to remain for a short time, and should be most happy to receive any orders in his profession. Residence—Mr Hea's Hotel.

This Institution will continue to be conducted upon the same principles which have rendered it so generally popular, and secured for it such extensive patronage from almost every part of these Provinces. It has now been opened and in successful operation upwards of nine years. The arrangements which were made to accomplish the important object for which it had been founded, were such as obtained for it, from its very commencement, a high position in the public estimation; and those upon whom the direction of its affairs has devolved, have been stimulated and encouraged by its prosperity, to continued efforts to render it, in all its departments, ever increasingly efficient. Every year in its history has, consequently, been marked by valuable additions to its Educational facilities, and by more or less extensive general improvements throughout the Establishment. The attention of Young Men, and of Parents and guardians of youth, is, therefore, respectfully invited to it, as an Institution where the advantages of a thorough intellectual training may be obtained in safety and comfort, and under most favorable circumstances.
