

QUEBEC. — Two square-rigged vessels from Britain arrived at this port on the 15th instant. The Gazette says there is only one instance of so early an arrival in our port, and that was in 1831, when the brig Nemesis, from Poole, arrived on the 16th April, after a passage of 21 days.

St. JOHN. — Ten square-rigged vessels arrived at this port on Monday last, from Britain. They had been detained in the Bay some time by adverse winds.

We are requested to intimate that owing to the difficulty of crossing the River, and the present state of the Roads, the Meeting of the Board of the Miramichi Fishery Society, which took place on Wednesday last, has been adjourned till WEDNESDAY, the 12th day of this month, then to take place in Kelly's Hotel, Chatham, at 3 o'clock, precisely.
