

NOVA SCOTIA.

FRENCH AGGRESSION ON NOVA SCOTIA FISHERMEN - A despatch from Pugwash was received by Messrs Oxley & Co yesterday, stating that the schooner Velez had just returned from St. George's Bay, Newfoundland, where she had gone to fish, but was prevented and driven away by a number of French cruizers. She had obtained about 500 barrels of herring and would soon have secured a full freight if left unmolested. May be the hate of the French cruizers, in this instance will wake us with a vengeance. Devastation, Basilisk and other "ugly customers" that are engaged in a similar line of business - Halifax Recorder.
