SMOKING MEAT.

Not a little has been written on the subject of preparing meat, in the best possible manner for domestic purposes, previous to placing it in the smoke house; but little or nothing has been said of the manner of smoking it. To appearance, it has been taken for granted, that this process, (so important in itself, and that it be done with care) could be performed by any one who knows enough to build a fire. Those who have eaten bacon smoked as it should be, and afterwards partaken of that which has been scorched, heated, burned to a crust on the outside as is too frequently the case with the meat of many people, will readily detect a remarkable difference; and often denounce the latter kind, as fit for nothing but soap grease. The process of smoking meat should never be left with those who have not a faculty of exercising proper care and judgment in this business. It is not necessary that the smoke be driven in, by heating the smoke-house like Nebuchadnezzar's furnace, seven times hotter than it ought to be heated; a smoke sufficient to fill the space occupied by the meat is the great desideratum. Log heaps, back logs and foresticks should be dispensed with, because, after they get once on fire there will be too great a degree of heat. And besides this in wooden smoke-houses, there is great danger of setting everything on fire. Such instances I have known to occur; and loss of the meat was the consequence.

The best, most effectual, cheapest and neatest manner of smoking meat, that has ever come under my observation, is, to place a shovel of live coals in an old pan, or some low dish, and lay on them a few sugar maple chips. Dry ones are the best, for it requires too much fire to use green ones. No other wood will produce so sweet smoke as sugar maple; and the coals of it will keep alive as long, or longer, than the coals of other wood. In the absence of chips, we use corn cobs, which are nearly as good as chips. Three or four laid on a few coals will produce smoke sufficient to fill an ordinary smoke house.

As a substitute for a smoke house, we have been accustomed to use a molasses hoghead, covered with boards on the top, and a hole sawed in the side near the bottom, large enough to admit a small pan of coals, with a cob or two, or a few small chips. Thus we avoid all danger of setting fire to the smoke house, and consuming meat and all; and our meat is not "half baked;" but presents a clean, copper colored appearance.

Let those who have been accustomed to smoke their meat over a log heap, adopt the mode of smoking it gently; and then say which way is the best.

SALT AS FOOD FOR PLANTS.

Professor Way, chemist to the R. Agricultural Society in a lecture on this subject, stated, as a conclusion to which his investigations had led him, that common salt was neither directly nor indirectly a constituent of the food of plants. He stated, however, as his belief, that salt did, in some instances, produce an action beneficial to vegetation, on some soils. He had not carried out his investigations to such an extent as to say, positively, to what this effect is attributable, but he was "led to believe that the common salt acted on certain silicates of lime present in a way as yet not understood; and at the same time it afforded a supply of lime to plants, gave rise, probably, to a modification of silica important to the straw of the cereals."

Inference to Prof. Way's remarks, other members of the society gave the results of their experience in the application of salt to land. Col. Challoner said he did not consider it acted simply as a manure on grain crops, "but it stiffened and brightened the straw, and caused it to ripen from 3 to 5 days earlier than it otherwise have done." Mr Barrow has found salt improve the strength and quality of his wheat straw, his neighbors' crops having been laid while his stood well. Mr Mechi said—"without being able to give the scientific reason salt gave strength and brightness to the wheat straw and prevented its lodging." He applied it at the rate of 3 cwt. per acre, mixed with the same weight of guano.

PROFITABLE FOWLS.

The raising of fancy poultry is getting to be quite a handsome business. Mr John T. Andrews of Sharon, Ct., has published, in the Litchfield Enquirer an account of his success in breeding fowls, from which it appears, that his profit on six pullets of the black Spanish variety, amounted to $181, or $30 each he had sold 200 chickens at an average of $1.25. Better business than the dairy that.

CULTIVATING FRUIT TREES.

The Prairie Farmer is speaking of the injury to young orchards occasioned by the common practice of sowing them to grain and seeding to grass, makes this far comparison: "Small grains in the orchard, are worse than red pepper in lemonade. So we think." He might have added that they are about as nourishing to fruit trees as ten-penny nails would be to a horse, or a Scotch-snuff pudding to young children.

By which means is a room better ventilated. By opening the upper sash, because the hot vitiated air, which always ascends towards the ceiling, can escape more rapidly.

The chopping and grinding of grain to be fed to stock operates as a saving of at least 20 per cent.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Copy of a Letter from Mr John Loyd, Erwen, near Harlech, Merionethshire, To Professor Holloway.

Sir—I avail myself of the first opportunity to inform you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper. I am Sir, your obedient Servant.

(Signed) JOHN LOYD.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8, 1852 To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, Dropsy, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skillfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks.

INFALLIBLE CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINT WITH INDIGESTION AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES.

Extract of a Letter from Mr S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, near Bristol, dated July 14th 1852.

To Professor Holloway, Dear Sir—I am requested by a Lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head-aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last, she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

(Signed) S. GOWEN.

A DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASMS IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr Bostock, Druggist of Ashton, under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852.

To Professor Holloway, Dear Sir—I have much pleasure in handing to you a testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighbourhood with whom I am well acquainted, was afflicted for a long time with violent spasmodic pains in the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colds, smells of paint, and the effects of a stooping position which he had obliged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a week and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the salutary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dozen gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs that he has been restored to the enjoyment of good health. I am, dear Sir yours faithfully,

(Signed) WILLIAM BOSTOCK.

AZOR'S

Oriental Turkish Wine.

The great remedy for General Debility, Weakness, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Bilious Diseases, a certain preventive of Fevers, &c., &c. This WINE is the most pleasant and effectual Remedy for any of the above complaints, and for many others not mentioned, that has ever been discovered. It is so agreeable to the taste that any one taking it soon prefers it to any Wine; while its action on the stomach and bowels is prompt and efficient, cleansing them thoroughly, and thus, by keeping the organ in which the basis of the blood is formed, in a healthy and pure state, necessarily keeps the blood pure and healthful. It is a stimulant without reaction, unlike the alcoholic preparations, which leave the partaker in a state of prostration. THIS WINE sends a gentle and agreeable feeling through every nerve, and its tonic properties are such that it will restore the weak and debilitated to their natural STRENGTH and VIGOR. It is composed of the Pure Wine of many of the most tonic and rare Plants in the Materia Medica, the recipe for which was obtained from a celebrated Turkish "Hakim,"—Physician,—and one bottle is equal to ten of any Sarsaparilla or Blood Purifier ever before known. Then give this Oriental Wine a trial: it will speak for itself better than any recommendation or certificate; and he who tries it once will never be without it, nothing can equal it as a Diet Drink in hot climates, or on Shipboard, and no traveller should be without it. Caution.—Find the name of Comstock & Brother, and the Stamp of the Turkish Flag, on the label and cork of each bottle, WITHOUT this it cannot be genuine.

All orders should be addressed to COMSTOCK & BROTHER, No. 2 St. Peter's Place, New York.

DEAFNESS.

Use Dr. LARZETTE'S ACUSTIC OIL, for the cure of Deafness. Also all those disagreeable noises, like the buzzing of insects, falling of water, whizzing of steam, which are symptoms of approaching Deafness. Persons who have been deaf for twenty years, and were subject to use ear trumpets, have after using one bottle, been made well.

Caution.—All the above named articles are sold only by Comstock & Brother, 2 St. Peter's Place, directly in rear of the Astor House, between Barclay and Fleet streets, one door from Barclay and one door from Broadway, New York, to whom all orders must be directed, also only by Wm. Forbes and Wm. Mainhead, Chatham. Wm. Masson & Co., Geo. Watt, and M. Sargeant, Newcastle. Park & Alexander, Douglastown. And by our Agents in every town in New Brunswick.

Positive Proof—Sceptics Read.

HAMPTON, Feb. 24, 1846.

Messrs. J. Curtis, Jr. & Co.—Gentlemen,

I have a word to say to you, in favor of HUNTER'S COUGH SYRUP. I have the last year used in my practice two dozen bottles of it which I had of you, and every bottle has done good. For eight years past I have been in the practice of medicine, and I have never found anything so well calculated to operate so favourably in all diseases of the lungs as that is. I have known a hard, distressing cough, cured in forty-eight hours, by using (in broken doses) one bottle of it. One case here in particular, of a man who was thought to have a seated consumption, troubled with a hard, distressing cough. I let him have one bottle, and he had two more of your agent, Mr. Whitmore. After using the three bottles, he has become well, and now labours every day. He told me lately, that Hunter's Cough Syrup was the means and only means of his cure. I have given it to infants, to children, to adults, and have the pleasure to inform you that it has done good in every case.

You need not hesitate to recommend it for a cough, and also all diseases of the lungs. I shall do all in my power to recommend it in the cases above named, not wholly for your benefit, but for the benefit of suffering humanity.

Yours truly,

BENJAMIN L. POMROY.

Mr Pierce,
Sir—It is very natural that Mr Hutchison, after adopting the extraordinary measures which he did, upon the death of the lamented Mr Wishart, without a pressing necessity, and without the shadow of law or usage, it is very natural that he should seek to justify himself in the eyes of the public. With this view, I suppose, he caused to be published in the last Gleaner, an extract of a letter alleged to have been received by him from Scotland. I will thank you Sir, to publish also the following extract of a letter received by me per the last British mail.

WILLIAM SMITH.

Newcastle, July 26, 1853.

Solway Bank, 28th June, 1853.
My Dear Sir,
I received your letter of the 4th June, and having lost no time in making necessary inquiries relating to the Wisharts that I desired of me. William lives at the Gulls b. des Eaglesfield, is married, and has a family. Bettie Wishart is married to one William Smith, and lives at Beyer Burnfoot, Cannobie, and has likewise a family, this William Smith desired me to write to you to say, that he hoped that you would see justice shown to all parties concerned in the matter. Yours truly
