

ther placed himself before her, and received the blade of the knife in his side. The father, being a maniac, wanted more blood to wash out the stain upon his daughter's honor, and with another plunge stabbed her to the heart. The Englishman died immediately, the son lived three hours, and the daughter still breathes, but will not live.—The father a highly respectable Brazilian gave himself immediately up to the authorities."

STABBING AFFAIR.—A clerk employed by the firm of Stewart & Co, New York, named Rupert Hill, a native of Halifax, N. S., was stabbed on the 8th inst., by a printer named Andrew Blair Bulger, also a native of Halifax. The New York papers assign jealousy as the principal cause of the rash act. Hill, at last accounts was in a precarious condition and it was feared he would not recover. Bulger was at one time a resident of this city, and has been working in New York, Boston and Baltimore for the last few years, bearing the name of Andrew Blair in the latter place.—He belonged to a very respectable family and possesses a considerable share of talent, but within the last two or three years has shown much symptoms of insanity, which, with the recklessness of manner acquired in the Southern States and the frequent use of ardent spirits, no doubt caused him to commit an act which he would not think of doing when in his proper mind. He has been arrested.

EXPLOSION OF A VESSEL BY GUNPOWDER. LOSS OF THIRTY-TWO LIVES.—The Monarch, of Wednesday last, gives the particulars of the stranding and subsequent explosion, by gunpowder, of the brig Lily, of 180 tons. The vessel in question is owned by Messrs. Hatton and Cookson, of Mersey-street, in this town, and left the Mersey on Thursday week, under the command of Captain John Owens, for the south west coast of Africa. The cargo consisted of about fifty tons of gunpowder, twenty puncheons of rum, a quantity of arms, and some bale goods, containing articles for barter on the coast. The vessel was beating about the Channel till Monday morning last, when she was driven by the violence of the storm to the Sound of the Calf of Man. The sea was running mountains high at the time, and, despite all the efforts of the crew, about 11 o'clock the Lily was stove on Kitterland Island, which lies between the Island of the Calf of Man and the mainland of the Isle of Man. With a desperate effort most of the crew (13 in number) reached the rocks by the aid of the boats. The waves beat furiously upon the wreck and the rocks. Captain Owens and three more of the crew got on the ledge of a rock, from which two of the seamen sprang to the land; but the captain in attempting to do the same was drowned.—The cook and two lads also met with a watery grave. The carpenter was killed by the mast falling on him. Thus five of the crew were lost.

Early on Tuesday morning, Mr Enos Lacey, grocer and shipbroker, of Port St. Mary, being sub-agent for Lloyds, repaired to the wreck with 21 men, to see what could be saved. At a quarter before eight a violent shock was felt throughout the southern district of the island, and a sheet of fire and a pillar of smoke were seen to be hurled into the air, hundreds of feet high, from the wreck. It seems that a large portion of the powder was placed so high in the vessel that it did not get wet by the waves breaking on it. The explosion dashed the vessel to atoms, and blew to broken fragments some thirty human beings. But one individual near the fatal scene escaped to tell the story, James Kelly, who is still alive, although one cheek and ear are taken off, and he is otherwise much contused. Hopes, however, are entertained for his recovery. Many of the deceased were the active, energetic men of business of Port St. Mary, and were engaged in the fishing and other nautical business. Thirty two men (besides the five of the crew that were lost on Monday, were killed, leaving twenty three widows and seventy three fatherless children.

SANTA ANNA ELECTED PRESIDENT.—New York, Jan. 8th.—Dates from Port au Plat to Dec. 22 have been received; business is dull, the market being overstocked, and the tobacco season being over.

Gen. Santa Anna has been elected president.

Several seamen from St. Thomas had died of the black vomit.

A Portuguese schooner, supposed to be a slaver, which put into the harbor of St. Domingo. The crew were sent by land under military guard; two of them died on the way from fatigue.

FATAL STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION.—By the explosion of the steamer Fusileer, bound from New Orleans to Attakapas, 5th inst., the first mate, second engineer, and five or six deck hands were killed and the captain was mortally wounded.

LEGACY TO MRS. PIERCE.—It is understood that the late Amos Lawrence left $35,000 to Mrs. Pierce, wife of the President elect. She is a relation of the family.

EXPLOSION OF A POWDER MILL.—Yesterday forenoon, about ten o'clock, the Powder Mill at South Acton exploded accompanied by a tremendous report. Three men were at work in the Mill, all of whom were instantly killed.—Boston Bee.

COSTLY BRIDAL CHAMBER.—The bridal chamber at the St. Nicholas Hotel, New York, about to be opened, is fitted up at a cost exceeding $12,000. It is a perfect bower of luxury and taste. The brocade gold cloth around the bed, cost $50 a yard. The sight of it is a rich optical banquet.

A FACT FOR DICKENS.—The eleventh ward police, in New York, arrested a day or two ago, a hag named Sharp, on a charge of harboring thieves and receiving stolen goods. They found fifteen small boys in her den, No. 319 Rivington street, engaged in gambling.

The New York Herald says that new letter envelopes, with single and double stamps, will soon be ready. Then every steamer, every railroad train, every stage, every express line, and every man will be a mail carrier by act of Congress. Letters in the government envelopes can be sent in any way, by any route, and by any conveyance.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Since our last, our community has lost two well known and respected individuals by death, viz. Ezekiel Barlow, Jun, Esq., the last surviving member of the old and influential firm of E. Barlow & Sons; and the Rev. W. T. Wishart, whose varied talent and literary ability have for some years past have been highly appreciated among us. The funeral of both the deceased took place on Saturday last—that of Mr. Barlow being attended by the St. George's Society in official array, and a large number of our most respectful citizens; and that of the Rev. Mr. Wishart by a long train of members of his congregation and other attached friends.—St. John Observer.

OUR MAGISTRATES.—We would advise the Grand Jury now sitting, to indict the whole Bench of Magistrates, for remissness of duty.—It is a singular fact that on the opening of the Court on Tuesday last there was but one Magistrate on the Bench, viz: Mr. Justice Paine. On Wednesday there was not the sign of such a dignitary in the Court until nearly 12 o'clock, when Mr. Chubb at length entered the Box, the Grand Jury, apparently, being unable to proceed with their business on account of the Magistrates' boxes being empty. Our contemporary (although, no doubt, the most busily engaged) was the only magistrate to appear. Suppose we hang the Magistrates up—to the tender mercies of the Court.—St. John Morning News.

CANADA.

We are informed on good authority, that the contract for the Grand Trunk Railroad from Montreal to Toronto, has been signed by Mr Jackson and his associates, on the arrival in London of the Hon. Mr. Ross. The line from Toronto to Hamilton has been undertaken by another Contractor, at £1000 more per mile than the Grand Trunk Line. The prospects of the Trois Pistoles Railroad are good.—Montreal Pilot.

SUNDAY'S MAIL.

The British mail by the steamer Europa, at Halifax on Friday morning, reached Chatham on Sunday. After a hasty perusal of our papers, which are to the 8th inst., we do not discover anything in addition to what is given in the Telegraph Despatch, which was published in our Saturday's edition. We copy a few paragraphs below.

EUROPE.

All the elections contingent upon the change of Ministry are over, except the one for the University of Oxford, which is still proceeding, and every where the members of the Government have been successful. Seeing that most of the men who hold important offices in the Ministry represent large and important constituencies, the fact of their return in every direction throughout England,—East, West, North, and South,—may be regarded as tolerable direct evidences that their popularity has not been compromised in being called to power; and it also distinctly marks the delight which the nation has experienced in getting rid of their immediate predecessors. No other result can be arrived at when we glance at the great and important towns and cities throughout the land which have returned to Parliament the men who now hold the first places in the new Cabinet.

We have said that Oxford is the only exception to the general triumph. This applies to the University, not to the city of Oxford; for the latter place has nobly vindicated its consistency, not only by electing Mr Cardwell, but by giving him the ovation of a conqueror.

The Nuncio of the Pope, and the Ministers of Portugal, Sweden, and Greece, have respectively made a formal recognition of the new Bonaparte dynasty. The three great Northern Powers have delayed in taking this step; but day by day the organs of the Government repeated solicitously the most positive assurances that all difficulties had been removed; that, in fact, the Austrian and Prussian Ambassadors in Paris had actually received their new credentials, and that the credentials of the Russian Ambassador were hourly expected. The Paris journals, which it must be ever born in mind are merely the mouthpieces of the police, tell us that the recognition of the French Empire by the three Powers is made without reserve, and that full confidence is expressed by them that the declarations in favour of peace, made by the Emperor at Bordeaux, will be fully realised. Napoleon III. is addressed as mon frere, whereas Louis Philippe was merely addressed as 'sire.'

A frightful war seems to be raging in the northern provinces of European Turkey. The Montenegrins seem to be fighting with the usual valour, and there has been great slaughter both on the side of the Turks and the hardy mountaineers. The whole of the Albanian coast has been put under blockade by the Turks.
