ADVERTISEMENT.

Mr Pierce,

Sir—It is very natural that Mr Hutchison, after adopting the extraordinary measures which he did, upon the death of the lamented Mr Wishart, without a pressing necessity, and without the shadow of law or usage, it is very natural that he should seek to justify himself in the eyes of the public. With this view, I suppose, he caused to be published in the last Gleaner, an extract of a letter alleged to have been received by him from Scotland. I will thank you Sir, to publish also the following extract of a letter received by me per the last British mail.

WILLIAM SMITH.

Yours truly

THOMAS KERR.
