COUNTY BONAVENTURE AGRICUL-TURAL SOCIETY, DIVISION No. 1.

The Cattle Shows for this Division of the County took place at New Richmond, that Committee have repeatedly applied on the 11th, and at New Carlisle on the to him for the amount, and one finally did 13th ultimo. At the former place, the Show consisted of Horses 22, Samples of Butter 19, Horned Cattle 76, Cheese 10, do. Thashin' Machines 1, Sheep 43, Hogs, 5, Ploughs

The Thrashing Mill was made by the exhibitor, Mr Gilbert; the Iron Plough by Mr. Donald Anderson, and a wooden one by Mr Robert Jamieson, all of New Richmond. This is as it should be, the Young men on this coast, are all accustomed to the use of tools from infancy, and if our Societies would import impro-ved implements of husbandry, there are few but could be made by our mechanics. and the offering of prizes, for all such home made articles, would be an inducement for the exercise of their ingenuity. We regret that other occupations prevented us from attending the New Richmond Show ; but of this we are certain, that the butter and cheese of the gude house-wives of that Township, would com pete successfully at any show in the three Provinces. Mr Cuthbert, as usual, took the Lion's share of prizes : out of 32 tickets 21 were prizes were Horses Hogs Butter 18, Horned Cattle 78, 7.

At New Carlisle the numbers exhibited

Sheep 28, The show of Horses was very indifferent. but there were some good horned cattle and sheep exhibited; also two fine Hogs by Mr LeBoutillier. That gentleman has introduced among us the Alderney breed of Cows. pure South Down and Leicester sheep, and a good breed of Hogs. We Sheep wish other wealthy merchants would fol-low the example of Messrs. LeBoutillier and Cuthbert, who are the only gentle-men in this Court men in this County, we believe, who have gone to the expense, of introducing supe-rior animals from the Mother Couptry. Mr LeBoutillfer took 11 prizes out of 14 tickets.

We must not omit to notice the samples of Butter, three of which were a beautiful and delicious article.

By the regulations of the new Society, the exhibitors on the west side of Bona-venture River are confined to New Rich-mond. and not allowed to compete here, and those from thence Eastward are confined to New Carlisle. This we have always objected to, when previously proposed. and this Show tends to confirm our views. As a whole, the New Carlisle Show was the worst we have attended since we are in the country. Apart from the mere inferiority of the show itself, there was a want of that zeal and emplation which characterised previous shows. The arguments advanced in support of the present plan is, that we cannot compete with the Scotch Settlement, the bonnie Highland men pocketing all the siller. To which we reply, perse-yere and you will succeed-take them for your model-follow their habits of industry and economy, and you will soon be in a position to compete with them. Emulation and perseverance are the great elements of success, and by returning to the old rule, we shall not only benefit the farmors of this section, but also this immediate locality, in a pecuniary point of view.

We are happy to have it in our power to congratulate the Society on the manner may judge from the past, we have yet much to learn though we could wish there credit is due to Mr Macdonald, the Seeretary, for the methodical and business like manner in which the whole was masomething like system and order being es-tablished, for we may truly say, that the lord of misrule reigned supreme, but were ever met by such thread-bare arguments as these-" Oh, this is a new country. you cannot expect things to be conducted here as in the old !" Another Solomon could scarcely utter wiser sentiments. We do not expect to see public Societies or public business conducted here as in the mother Country, the great mass of the people not being sufficiently educated. But we should like to see those, who consider themselves educated men and gentlemen, set an example of order and pro priety at all public meetings and in all public affairs. Unfortunately there are men among us who appear to think that all must bend to their sovereign behestthat they can act as they please, their wealth or their official character being a sufficient shield to ward off the puny atcy has so long been openly violated with impunity, that they think they may go any length without let or hindrance. A change for the better that they have been better that the better that the better change for the better must be brought about, and we beg all such to weigh well the following lines :

say that, though repeatedly applied to, he still withholds the sum of £13 12 7 ba-lance of a check received by him on the 17th March, 1852. That gentleman is no less a persenage than John Hamilton Esq., Q. C. A Committee having been

Esq., Q. C. A Committee having been appointed to draw up a Report of the af-fairs of the late Society, two members of so two days previous to the cattle show here, but in vain. Possesion is nine points of the law quoth our learned Queen's Counsel, we presume. Under these disgraceful circumstances, we took upon ourselves to bring the matter under notice of the general meeting, on the 13th ult., stating at the same time, that though Mr Hamilton was told the money was re-quired to pay off the prizes at New Richmond, he still retained it, and Mr Le-Boutillier had to be applied to for the loan of $\pounds 10$, the Government grant not having been received. These our remarks which we trust were conveyed in becoming and gentlemanly language, called forth a shower of abusive epithets, on our devoted head, from that worthy scion of a noble Father, Mr Clarence Hamilton, on his part, to have been prepared with his accounts as the paid officer of the old Society. And we beg leave, thus public-ly, to remind the young man, that abuse and low language may be very suitable for the society he frequents, but are sorry arguments wherewith to combat facts. The few scraps of paper belonging to the late Society are in our possession, in order to enable us to draw up something in the shape of a report - a duty which should have been performed by Mr Clarence Hamilton—and among those papers we find three cheques, amounting together to $\pounds 10 - 0$ - 6, drawn by the ex Secretary, for commission and travelling expences. but as to a statement of the Society's affairs, or a Report, these are invisible .-Of this at all events, we have proof posi-tive, that he is a chip of the old block.--If we were as rich as some people are, or boasts they are, we would not be beggar-ly enough to charge the Agricultural Society £2 10s. for going to New Richmond, particularly when we travelled in our people, without probably expending one shilling beyond the two ferries. That we should certainly consider a most beg-That garly act. Ab uno disce omnes. There is also one thing connected with this afticed — the fact of His Honor Judge Thompson, who presided, not even calling his hopeful great Nephew to order. We can make every allowance for the ties of blood, but we beg leave, with all due deference to His Honor, to observe, that the slightest word of disapprobation from him would have produced a far different feeling on the minds of the audience, to that which pervaded when the meeting broke up. We have attended many public meetings in our time, but we had to come here to learn that it formed no part of a Chairman's duty, to keep order and pre-vent the use of low vulgar language.-'Tis true the learned President called us to order, and laid down what, at least to us in our simplicity, appears a strange point of Law-namely " that no member as a right at public meetings to call the attention of the subscribers to any abuse or mismanagement, the committee being the only persons qualified to take cognizance of such matters."-Strange doc-trine this, however we are never too old to learn, and we, must candidly admit that we have learned a great deal since we came to the District of Gaspé-and if we had been less of evil, less to exciet feelings of pity for poor human nature. Another admirable move on th Another admirable move on the part of our learned Q. C., was the entering of is, the public did not know and have no naged. We have long and strenuously insisted on the necessity and propriety of something like system and order being esrence could then claim the amount of await with great anxiety for reliable news prizes, and if told there was a large bal- from the East. ance due to the Society by his father, he would doubtless assert he had no connection whatever with any other house in the trade, and would not pay other people's debts! Here again we are at issue with His Honor, who states "there is no appeal from the Judges, who have given their decision to the President, much less to a subscriber to the Institution not being a member of the Corporation." And this in the face of the following rule of the Society which appears on the printed handbills, "all articles exhibited shall be bona fide the property of the exhibitor

COUNTY BONAVENTURE.

New Carlisle on the 8th November, communicates the following local news :

"As I write, I hear the merry sound of the sleigh bells. The earth has assumed the white garb with which she is cloathed during one half the year, in this quarter, and every thing denotes that Winter has fairly set in, at this unusually early period. It has been intensely cold repairs, have proceeded to Quebec with a which will be a boon to our fishermen. many of whom must otherwise have suffered great privation this winter. "A Schooner belonging to Capt. John Sive of Maria, was stranded on Sunday night during the fall of snow, at Nouvelle (East.) Fortunately it did not blow, and as she grounded at low water, was got off with the flood. She is last from Halifax and partly laden with West India pro-duce."

EUROPEAN NEWS.

THE arrival of the Steamer Baltic, at New York, puts us in possession of news four days later than obtained by the mail Dalhousie, with a remittance, came to steamer America at Halifax. The St. hand yesterday. John papers contain the following items of news, furnished to the News Room, by Telegraph, via Quebec :

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Baltic ar-rived at half past 12 o'clock, with 175 pas-sengers. Breadstuffs unchanged, but lower if any change at all.

The Turks have crossed the Danube unopposed. It is rumoured that an armis-tice had been opened. The news as usual contradictory.

The Arabia arrived at Liverpool on the 29th ult.

Everything is enveloped in mystifica-tion. A Vienna despatch announces that an armistice between the Turks and Austrians was agreed to for an indefinite period. This despatch materially advances the prices of English and French funds.

Another despatch announces that a satisfactory diplomatic note of the Four Powers was on its way to Constantinople-that the supposed armistice was to allow time for its acceptance. This strengthens the funds but it began to be thought that the armistice was a conditional order to Omar Pa-cha not to commence hostilities ull Nov. 1, if he had not already begun. This depressed the stock market, and it was farther depressed by a telegraphic despatch, apparently authentic, that the Turks had crossed the Danube in strength, and occupied Kalafat, with the intention to attack lieve dwellings. The freshet it is stated was never known to be so high.

The weather still continues very mild; yesterday a small quantity of snow fell. Last night it rained heavily, the snow has disappeared, and to-day is warm with a soft wind from the westward.

THE MAIL.

THE Southern Mail due on Wednesday morning at five o'clock, did not reach Chatham till eleven at night; and the one due at the same hour yesterday morning came in at four in the afternoon. The A Correspondent writing to us from delay in both instances, we understand, was owing to the detention of the St. John mail between that city and the Bend. We wish the Post Master General would hurry them along -these delays occur too frequently, and at seasons of the year when no excuse can be offered.

The detention of the last English mail in Halifax from Friday until Monday this last four days. Still it is to be hoped, for the sake of the Cattle, that we may yet have mild weather this month. Should the ground continue covered with snow, the Bend until several hours after its pro-few of the Inhabitants in this part of the per time, were sufficiently annoying, but per time, were sufficiently annoying, but tew of the inhabitants in this part of the country will have sufficient fodder to carry them through the winter. "Since my last the, Grouville, Pabos, and Mr Meagher's Schooner, have been got off, and the two last, after undergoing ropean Times of the 29th, as well as our portion of the stranded fish, &c. A Que-bec Schooner having providentially call-ed at Paspediac has taken the remainder, yet turned up. We should like to know London Journals of a later date than the what has befallen them.
