W. A. BLACK, High Sheriff of Northumberland. Sheriff's Office, Newcastle, May 25, 1854.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN,
After four years service as one of your Representatives, I again present myself as a Candidate for your suffrages.

Had not my political opinions been fully known at the last General Election, the course pursued, and the votes given by me in the Assembly, have been sufficiently uniform and decided to mark me LIBERAL.

Steadfast in my political views, as when returned in 1850; should your's remain unchanged, my election is secure.

Deeming it at once your right and my privilege that I should be prepared to give in public an account of my stewardship, I shall, for this purpose, visit the various sections of the County prior to the Election.

Meantime, I am, Gentlemen, your obedient Servant.

J. M. JOHNSON, JR.
Chatham, 20th May, 1854.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN,
A general Election is at hand, and it is my intention to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages.

I have now had some experience as a Legislator, and if I should be again honored with your confidence, I will endeavour, faithfully, to promote the general advancement of the Province, and in particular, the varied interests of this important County.

I am, Gentlemen, your most obedient servant,
GEORGE KERR.
Chatham, 13th May, 1854.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN,
As every one says the General Election is at hand, (and according to the old saw, what everybody says must be true), I beg leave respectfully to inform you, that I intend to be one of the Candidates who will offer for the suffrages of the County; and should I be so fortunate as to be one of your choice, I assure you that my best attention will be devoted, to the general interests of the Province, and of our own great County in particular. Premises made at the hustings, and in the course of canvass, I consider as so much steam thrown off, for the purpose of deceiving the public in order to get votes. On the day of nomination, however, I will inform you what side I intend to take, on those great questions that must necessarily come up for discussion in the new house, should time permit I shall visit the different localities of the County. In the mean time, I beg to solicit your votes and interest.

I remain, Gentlemen, Respectfully, your faithful Servant,
M. CRANNEY.
Chatham, 20th May, 1854.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN,
The term of the present Assembly of the Province having nearly expired, we will shortly be called on to choose Representatives. Having been solicited by many old and true friends, and agreeably with my promise at the close of the last General Election, I will come forward as a Candidate at the approaching Election, and shall on the Nomination day give an explanation of my Political views. In the meantime, I beg leave to solicit your votes. As I may not be able to visit all parts of the County, I take this early opportunity of letting you know I am in the field.

I remain, Gentlemen, your most obedient Servant,
RICHARD SUTTON.

REQUISITION.

TO THE HON. JOHN A. STREET, ATTORNEY GENERAL &c., &c.,

Sir,—Feeling desirous of retaining your valuable services as our Representative, We, the Undersigned Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, respectfully request that you will allow yourself to be put in Nomination as a Candidate at the next General Election in our County, when we pledge ourselves to give you our vote and interest.

We are, Sir, Your most obedient servants,
Roderick M'Leod, Moses Hovey, Charles Avery, Alexander Davidson, Thomas W. Underhill, Henry B. Allison, Alexander M'Laggan, William Loch, Edward Farrell, Miles M'Millan, Donald M'Naughton, Oliver Willard, George H. Russell, William Wilson, George S. K. Anderson, George J. Parker, William Letson, Jared Betts, James L. Price, Robert Noble, James L. Price, Abel Pond, And 400 others.
Northumberland, March, 1854.

REPLY.

To Roderick M'Leod, Alexander Davidson, Thomas W. Underhill, Alexander M'Laggan, Miles M'Millan, Donald M'Naughton, William Wilson, George S. K. Anderson, Jared Betts, James L. Price, Abel Pond, Moses Hovey, Charles Avery, Henry B. Allison, William Loch, Edward Farrell, Oliver Willard, George H. Russell, George J. Parker, William Letson, Robert Noble, and 400 others, the Signers to the foregoing Requisition.

Gentlemen,—The Session of the Legislature, having now closed, I am enabled to reply to your very handsome and complimentary Requisition to me, to come forward again as a candidate for the Representation of the County of Northumberland, at the approaching General Election.

I feel much gratified at this Requisition, and beg to express my sincere acknowledgments for the honor you have thus done me. I view this as an additional proof of the confidence you have hitherto placed in me, and as another demonstration of that kind and friendly feeling which I have so often experienced at your hand; I can assure you I highly appreciate this mark of your approbation.

I shall most readily comply with your wishes, and should I be so fortunate as to be again returned as one of your Representatives, you may confidently rely upon my unremitting endeavours to promote the best interests of the County, and of the Province at large.

I have had the honor of being one of your Representatives for more than twenty years, and am free to confess that while I continue in public life I should feel great reluctance to sever my political connection with the County I have so long served, in which I so long resided, and with which are connected so many pleasing associations of early life.

Trusting I shall soon have the pleasure of seeing you personally,
I have the honor to remain, Gentlemen, with great respect,
Yours very faithfully,
J. A. STREET.
Fredericton, May 1, 1854.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN,
The time having expired for which you did me the honor of Electing me one of your Representatives, to serve in the General Assembly of this Province. I avail myself of the present occasion to inform you, that from the flattering assurances I have received since my return home, induces me to say that I shall be a Candidate at the approaching Election, when I beg to solicit your kind support.

On the 14th day of June, 1850, I published ten several propositions embracing my views, as to what I considered useful measures, for the best interests of the Province. Many of the subjects I then put forth, have been acted upon successfully. Such as a reduction of the expenditure by Public Officers; the Revision of the Provincial Statutes; the simplifying the mode of proceeding in the Courts of Law, and reduction of the expenses; the amalgamation of the Courts of Law and Equity which I have no doubt will be attended with the best results. The subject of compelling the payment of artificers and labourers in money for their work, has not been accomplished by law; but I doubt not but the agitation of the subject has facilitated a much better system of payment than had been in use before.

It will be admitted that the duty on Agricultural implements, are oppressively high and should be reduced.

To prevent improper appropriations of the Public Money, I am convinced that the initiation of money Grants should be as in Canada, in the hands of the Executive Government.

As my views on ten leading topics for Legislation which I put forth in 1850, and to which I have alluded, and nothing has transpired to alter my opinion as explained, I shall defer enlarging on them now.

I have to express my regret that it has not been convenient for me to visit all the remote settlements in this County, but from the visits I have made, I can fully admit that many of the new Settlements are very destitute of roads, and should be the first care of the Legislature to give encouragement to the settlers in such situations by opening up Roads to enable them to get to market and should I have the honour of being returned. The subject of roads shall receive my best attention, and if possible, I shall visit some of our most remote settlements before the Election. I shall feel great pleasure in personally seeing any Elector, but that is quite out of my power, and I hope therefore to be excused for not doing so. I appear before the Electors unconnected with any one. I wish no harm to any Candidate. I am only seeking support for myself, and should I be elected, I shall be free to act on the dictates of my own conscience, and as I think right to all men. It now remains with the Freeholders to deal with me as they think best. I should be glad to deal more at large with the various subjects that will engage the attention of the Legislature, but in a card of this kind it is impossible, but I am prepared to give any explanation at any time that may be required of me, and should I be elected I shall do all I can for the good of the County.

I remain, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
J. T. WILLISTON.
