

will be the delegates from this Province to meet in convention at New York, upon the Fishery treaty. We hope that Mr Hazen will insist upon for our vessels as an offset for the fisheries.—Morning News.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN, After four years service as one of your Representatives, I again present myself as a Candidate for your suffrages. Had not my political opinions been fully known at the last General Election, the course pursued, and the votes given by me in the Assembly, have been sufficiently uniform and decided to mark me LIBERAL. Steadfast in my political views, as when returned in 1850; should your's remain unchanged, my election is secure. Deeming it at once your right and my privilege that I should be prepared to give in public an account of my stewardship, I shall, for this purpose, visit the various sections of the County prior to the Election. Meantime, I am, Gentlemen, your obedient Servant. J. M. JOHNSON, JR. Chatham, 20th May, 1854.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN, As every one says the General Election is at hand, (and according to the old saw, what everybody says must be true), I beg leave respectfully to inform you, that I intend to be one of the Candidates who will offer for the suffrages of the County; and should I be so fortunate as to be one of your choice, I assure you that my best attention will be devoted, to the general interests of the Province, and of our own great County in particular. Promises made at the hustings, and in the course of canvass, I consider as so much Steam thrown off, for the purpose of deceiving the public in order to get votes. On the day of nomination, however, I will inform you what side I intend to take, on those great questions that must necessarily come up for discussion in the new house, should time permit I shall visit the different localities of the County. In the mean time, I beg to solicit your votes and interest. I remain, Gentlemen, Respectfully, your faithful Servant, M. CRANEY. Chatham, 20th May, 1854.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

If you be poor, be sure no freedom make, For you'r a fool though pure and wise you speak; But if you be rich and descend from a race of Clowns, Your actions are good, and your words are of high renown. GENTLEMEN, As a general Election is approaching, you will again be called upon to select four Members to represent you the next four years; in so doing I hope you will make a good choice, as far as regards your own interest, and the interest of the Province at large. Gentlemen, as I intend to come forward as one of the four, and that from motives best known to myself, I will not say whether my friends have called upon me or not, you will discover that part on the hustings; I would not surrender those internal rights and volitions which are peculiarly my own and which have no connexion with those ends and purposes for which society is constituted. It is enough that man labours for those who employ him; if they look for more from him they seek not to act the part of the just. Gentlemen, I hope also that every man will stand erect whether Turk, Jew, or Papist. I hope no man will vacillate so as to monopolise a title which does not peculiarly belong to him. I fear some men calling themselves Irishmen, when their works are brought before the light, they will not bear the light, and if not they must suffer loss. The inspired Apostle said "he who is a slave let him become a beast of burden." Another of the Apostles said, "he who is in filth, let him remain in filth." Arise my friends and never be branded with this sentence. O Connell, the father of my country for 30 years, Always said, "he who wants to be free let him strike the blow." My friends I understand that some persons or persons has taken liberty with me so far as to report that I am only canvassing for some other Candidate. My friends I have before now canvassed for some men, and I am not sorry for doing so, but I tell you as a man that I am now canvassing for myself. I tell you also that there is not a man in this province from the Governor to the lowest mendicant, that I care for, no farther than reason and religion teaches, except those to whom it was said he who hears you hears me. As to politics I need not speak, my neighbors will leave me nothing to do in that line. My friends, however, this contest may end, believe me to remain, still your dutiful and most obedient servant. CORNELIUS MCCARTHY. Chatham, May 18, 1854.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN, The time having expired for which you did me the honor of Electing me one of your Representatives, to serve in the General Assembly of this Province, I avail myself of the present occasion to inform you, that from the flattering assurances I have received since my return home, induces me to say that I shall be a Candidate at the approaching Election, when I beg to solicit your kind support. On the 14th day of June, 1850, I published ten several propositions embracing my views, as to what I considered useful measures, for the best interests of the Province. Many of the subjects I then put forth have been acted upon successfully. Such as a reduction of the expenditure by Public Officers; the Revision of the Provincial Statutes; the simplifying the mode of proceeding in the Courts of Law, and reduction of the expenses; the amalgamation of the Courts of Law and Equity which I have no doubts will be attended with the best results. The subject of compelling the payment of artificers and labourers in money for their work, has not been accomplished by law; but I doubt not but the agitation of the subject has facilitated a much better system of payment than had been in use before.

It will be admitted that the duty on Agricultural Implements, are oppressively high and should be deduced.

To prevent improper appropriations of the Public Money, I am convinced that the initiation of money Grants should be as in Canada, in the hands of the Executive Government

As my views on ten leading topics for Legislation which I put forth in 1850, and to which I have alluded, and nothing has transpired to alter my opinion as explained, I shall defer enlarging on them now.

I have to express my regret that it has not been convenient for me to visit all the remote settlements in this County, but from the visits I have made, I can fully admit that many of the new Settlements are very destitute of roads, and should be the first care of the Legislature to give encouragement to the settlers in such situations by opening up Roads to enable them to get to market and should I have the honour of being returned. The subject of roads shall receive my best attention, and if possible, I shall visit some of the most remote settlements before the Election. It is all I feel great pleasure in personally saying any Effect, but that is quite out of my power, and I hope therefore to be excused for not doing so. I appear before the Electors unconnected with any one. I wish no harm to any Candidate. I am only seeking support for myself, and should I be elected, I shall be free to act on the dictates of my own conscience, and as I think right to all men. It now remains with the Freeholders to deal with me as they think best. I should be glad to deal more at large with the various subjects that will engage the attention of the Legislature, but in a card of this kind it is impossible, but I am prepared to give any explanation at any time that may be required of me and should I be elected I shall do all I can for the good of the County. I remain, Gentlemen, your obedient servant. J. T. WILLISTON. Chatham, May 20, 1854.
