Return of Sir Charles Napier from the Baltic.—The Morning Herald of yesterday says:—We have reason to believe that the Commander-in-Chief of the Baltic. Vice Ad-Miral Sir Charles Napier, K C. B. solicited, and by telegraph orders has obtained permission, to leave the Baltic fleet at Kiel, and return direct to England. Rear Admiral Chad-C. B., is ordered to hoist his flag on buard the Duke of Wellington, 131, screw, at Kiel as Commander in Chief. The fleet is now ordered to return to England.

Loss of Russian Stores.—A Correspondent of the Vienna Fremden Blatt, a Journal usu-ally very favourable to Russia, adds that a train of several hundred of waggons, laden with provisions and munitions for the Russi-an troops at Baksrisorai, was surprised by the frightful snow storms in the steppes, south of Perekop, and annihilated.

Provisions in Sebastopol.—The Vienna correspondent of the Chronicle, states that Sebastopol is provisioned for not more than 14 or 16 weeks, and the Russian relieving army altogether depends for its support upon the supplies sent from Southern Russia.—
These are conveyed in all descriptions of vehicles, principally drawn by oxen, which are as much exposed to destruction in the Tauridian steppes as the ships of the Allies in the
