

to Clarke's Cove. Committee—Messrs. George Kerr, B. Stapledon, and W. Muirhead.

J. M. JOHNSON, Chairman.
J. A. PIERCE, Secretary.

The Committees met the following day, and handed in their reports. It was then Resolved, that fifty barrels of Lime be procured, to be used under the direction of the Committees, in cleansing and purifying the Town. Another resolution was passed, that the Committees meet every evening at 8 o'clock. A subscription List was opened and a handsome sum realized, for procuring disinfecting materials, and to defray any expenses the Committees may incur in carrying out the Resolution passed at the Public Meeting.

Much credit is due to the Committees, for the prompt and energetic manner they have performed the task assigned them, and we have every confidence they will be cheerfully aided by the inhabitants of the town, who appear to be fully alive to the necessity their exists for a thorough cleaning up of the streets, lanes, yards, slaughter houses, pig pens, &c., &c.

We will all feel the better for this cleaning and purifying. We will inhale a purer atmosphere, and have the satisfaction of knowing, that we have done all that men could do to mitigate the scourge should it be unfortunately introduced among us. We should all live temperately—in eating and drinking—avoid the night air, and if attacked by any of the promontory symptoms, apply the remedies or consult a physician. The issue let it rest with an allwise and beneficent Being, who doeth all things well.

THE SEASON.

THE weather has been very changeable during the week. The sun during the day has been very oppressive. Considerable rain has fallen, accompanied with heavy thunder and lightning. The nights are cool.

PASSENGERS.—A Schooner arrived yesterday from Shediac, having a number of passengers on board, mechanics and labourers, who had been employed on the railway. The cause of their leaving we have not been able to ascertain, but we believe it was owing to disputes relative to wages and hours.

GOOD.—The following appeared as an advertisement in a late English paper:

"The person who left two of his toes, and the heel of an old boot, in a steel trap in Anfield Plantation, on Sunday evening last, may have the same returned on application to the Gardener, at the cottage."

COMMUNICATION.

Mr EDITOR,
In looking over your last number, I find a letter purporting to come from Orlando Bloucher, and perceive by the tenor of said letter he has been urged by some malicious person to write it; he complains of my not letting him know his brother's body was found; in his letter to me which I answered on receiving it, he did not mention one word about the body, but was very particular about the trunk, which was sent him without being unlocked, the key being on his brother's person; there were some other things lying about the room which were put into a box to be sent with the trunk but owing to the box having another man's name on it, it was neglected at the time the other was sent, which will be sent him, this ought to satisfy him as the spoil seems to be all he cares for. Mr Bell telegraphed to know if the body was found, I answered him, not yet, and as soon as I heard the little girl's body was found, I telegraphed to that effect. And now I have a few hints to the worthy individual who has taken such an active part in vilifying my character throughout the whole. We will look at the first Inquest, we find him making no comments on the contradictory statements of two of the witnesses, but most ardently endeavouring to indite Mr Fraser's wharf, as he expressed himself, which was not public but private property. On the second Inquest, he spent a long time in cross examining a witness to make him state the Boat was not safe, and seemed quite chagrined that he did not succeed, and when I wished him to ask a question pertaining to the case, he stopped me.—Should he find time to hang bravely on his hands, he had better spend it in looking over the Law, than slandering those who never done him an injury.

E. HATHEWAY.
Chatham, August 4, 1854.
