REMOVAL.

MrJas. Witherell begs leave to intimate to his friends and the public, that he has removed from the Establishment lately occupied by him as the "Jenny Lind Hotel," to that commodious and pleasantly situated Building in Douglas street, formerly known as the GLOUCESTER HOTEL, to which he has made extensive additions and fitted up with all the modern improvements, in the most superior style, for the accommodation of Private Boarders and Travellers.

Mr W. trusts that by strict attention to business he may continue to receive acontinuance of that liberal patronage with which he has been hitherto favoured.

The establishment will still be designated the "Jenny Lind Hotel," and as it affords peculiar facilities for SaltWaterBathing, the proprietor intends erecting the necessary appendages for that purpose, for the accommodation of summer tourists and invalidation. invalids.
