

shreek or the groan of the assassin's victim. Thieves prowl the city over from midnight to sunrise, breaking bolts, picking locks, and, with a boldness and daring almost inconceivable, searching houses from cellar to attic, for the hard-earned money of honest sleepers.

WEST INDIES.

From Venezuela and the West Indies—Ravages of the Cholera.—The steamer Tennessee from Laguayra 27th, St. Thomas 1st inst., arrived at New York on the 8th. The Cholera had entirely disappeared from the Provinces of Caracas and Cara Bobo, but was committing awful ravages in other Provinces. Political affairs quiet. No sickness at St. Thomas, but reports state that the Cholera was raging with terrible fatality at Porto Rico; from Nov. 21st. to January there had been 12,500 proved fatal.

We learn by accounts from the City of Porto Rico to the 11th Jan., that the Cholera had not then reached Guayama, Ponce, or Mayaguez. The disease, however, was raging fearfully in Arechibo, over one hundred deaths having taken place in that district alone.

The Haytian Invading Army again in motion. New-York, Feb. 9.—A private letter from Hayti, dated January 24, says that the Haytian Army had advanced to Ouanaminthe, and that all the troops are being collected to continue the invasion; that most vigorous measures were in force to augment the army, the people being caught up and put in prison until they are ready to be sent off.

Scrofula.—Unprecedented instances of the cure of this complaint.—This is, perhaps, the greatest scourge to which the human family are subject, and at the same time the most difficult of cure, inasmuch as it is dependant on the power of the medicine prescribed, and its instantaneous effects upon the parts affected. The only infallible remedy for the cure of this most distressing of maladies with which we are acquainted is, Holloway's Ointment and Pills, they quickly eradicate all cutaneous diseases, but there is perhaps no class of disorders which so readily yields to the treatment of these mighty medicines. They act like a charm, and not only astonish the patient, but the faculty themselves, rendering them unparalleled in the history of man.

NEW WORK.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF SECTARIANISM.

For Sale at the Stationary Store adjoining the Gleaner Office and at W. J. Fraser & Co's. Price 5s.

The following are some of the critics on the work.

The Philosophy of Sectarianism; or, A Classified View of the Christian Sects in the United States; with Notices of their Progress and Tendencies. Illustrated by Historical facts and Anecdotes. By the Rev. Alexander Blaikie, Pastor of the Associate Reformed (The first Presbyterian) Church, Boston.—"This is a very curious and interesting classification and analysis of the various religious sects in our country, enlivened by anecdotes and pertinent illustrations of the effects of different forms of faith. If Mr. Blaikie does not leave the mind confirmed to the adoption of particular religious dogmas, he at least rouses it to a wise looking beneath the surface of pretensions and traditions, and to an earnest seeking for the 'truth which makes free.' As a Pastor in the 'Associate Reformed Church,' his own doctrines are marked and clear, but they have not prevented him from giving a candid exposition of other sects."—N. Bed. Merc.

"A valuable classification. A book which every man who has any religious belief will find both useful and interesting."—Hartford Republican.

"The Scotchman stands stiffly by his sect, and that is not a very bad fault. The book is well written."—Watchman and State Journal, Montpelier, Vt.

"A work which we shall prize."—Lancaster Sentinel.

"This work is written with much ability, and contains a great amount of matter of a very interesting character."—Telegraph, Boston.

"This is a decorous exposition of its writer's views of the tenets and tendencies of the various sects in this country. He is a Presbyterian in his religious views, and these impregnate his essay. Yet they are presented in a candid and fair spirit, and no one who does not sympathize with him in his sentiments can well take exception at his expressing them."—Boston Atlas.
