JAMES MITCHELL,

Sheriff of Northumberland.

Sheriff's Office, Newcastle, 19th April, 1857.

To the Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN,

I place myself again before you as a Candidate at the approaching Election for the Representation of the County, and I feel assured you will exercise your Franchise in such a manner as will best promote the interest of the County and the welfare of the Province. If on reviewing my conduct during the period I have been honored with your confidence, you believe I am a fit person to be continued as one of your Representatives, I can only say that if returned, I will, as (according to the best of my judgment) I have always done, use my best exertions to promote the welfare of Northumberland in particular and the interest of the Province generally.

I have the honor to be,

Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

GEORGE KERR.

Chatham, April 1, 1857.

REQUISITION.

To the Hon. J. A. STREET, Fredericton.

SIR,—His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, by and with the advice of his Council, having prorogued the House of Assembly, with the view of an immediate dissolution, a crisis has in consequence arisen in the affairs of this Province which will require skillful management, combined with energy and integrity. Believing that you possess these pre-requisites in an eminent degree, and having on former occasions served this County with zeal and ability, we respectfully solicit you to come forward on the present occasion, when we pledge ourselves to give you our cordial support.

Miramichi, Northumberland, 31st March 1857.
(Here follow Signatures)

MR STREET'S REPLY.

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland who have signed the foregoing Requisition.

GENTLEMEN.—I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your highly gratifying and flattering Requisition to offer as a Candidate for the Representation of Northumberland at the approaching Election, and in reply beg to say, that after so handsome and numerously signed a Requisition, I feel it alike a duty and an honor to comply with your request. Should I be returned, you may rely upon my untiring exertions to promote the best interests of the Province, and of the County of Northumberland in particular. I have been too long in public life to make it necessary to be profuse in promises. The Constituency of Northumberland have a full knowledge of my public and private character, and can, therefore, from their own personal experience, judge of my capacity to serve them, and how far their suffrages will be safe in my hands. Again thanking you for this additional mark of confidence,

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen,

Your's, very faithfully,

J. A. STREET.

Fredericton, April 13, 1857.

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN,—

A dissolution of the House of Assembly having taken place, you are again called upon to exercise the constitutional right of Electing Representatives to serve you in General Assembly.

At the solicitation of a large number of the Freeholders of the County, I am again induced to offer myself as a CANDIDATE for your suffrages; and if I am honoured with your confidence I shall, as I trust I have ever done, discharge my duties faithfully and independently, with a due regard to the best interests of the Province, and of your County in particular, in the prosperity of which I must always feel and take the most lively interest.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your's faithfully,

J. A. STREET.

Fredericton, April 13, 1857.

To the Freeholders of the County of Gloucester.

GENTLEMEN—

You will soon have an opportunity of doing your duty as Freeholders, by choosing men to Represent your interests, and guard your constitutional rights in the General Assembly of this Province.

I beg thus early and most respectfully to offer myself for your favourable consideration, assuring you; that, should I have the honour of your confidence, I shall endeavour to serve the County as I ever have done, with a just appreciation of its true interests, and the happiness and prosperity of its inhabitants.

The last Election, and the proceedings of the Scrutiny Committee connected with it, have taught two lessons:—the Freeholders of Gloucester have learned the value of ONE VOTE, and the Public at large have had a proof of the vileness of Party Spirit, before whose baneful influence, Truth, Law, Justice, and even the obligations of an Oath, are withered into insignificance.

My principles are known to you all—twenty-six years ago when my political life began. "Equal rights to all" was our motto. We nailed it to the mast, and although my friends, the Blasphemers may be a little whitened by time, believe me, the Flag with its motto float as proudly as ever.

Yours faithfully,

WILLIAM END.
