New York, Dec. 21.

The Adriatic, which left Liverpool, p. m. of the 9th, arrived this morning. There is news one week later from India. It reports General Havelock hemmed in at Lucknow. Sir Colin Campbell was marching to his relief. There was nothing important additional. The Leviathan was making daily progress to deep water. Parliament would soon adjourn to its regular day of meeting. One thousand pounds a year settled on Gen. Havelock. London Money Market unchanged. Consols for money 91 5-8 to 91 3-4. Markets were generally dull. Breadstuffs were declining. Tea was inactive and drooping. Sugar unchanged.

DEATHS.

When just going to press, the sad intelligence reached us, from his residence, Yonge street, that R. L. THOMAS, Printer of this Journal since its commencement, had breathed his last. Mr Thomas, who was a native of Wales, was an upright and intelligent man, a credit to society, and beloved by all who knew him. He was long a prey to consumption, and died surrounded by weeping and true friends. He was a member of the Toronto Typographical Society.

[The above obituary notice is copied from the Toronto Catholic Citizen of the 10th December. Mr T. served his apprenticeship in the Gleaner office, and was for a number of years after foreman in our establishment. He was well known in this County, and his early death will be much regretted by his numerous acquanintances and associates.]

At Napan, on the 18th inst., WILLIAM

GRAHAM, youngest son of James and Ann Creighton, aged 1 year and two months.

Persons finding our Stationery Store closed, will please enquire at the Printing Office, where a person will be prepared at all times to serve them.
