LOCAL.

We have but little or no news of a local nature to record. The Salmon fishers, we are sorry to hear, have up to the present period been very unsuccessful.

The season, up to yesterday, has been the coldest ever experienced in the County; on that day the sun shone out bright and warm.

To CORRESPONDENTS.—O. K. is received. We have concluded to close our columns against all remarks on the person assailed.

NEW WORKS.—To Messrs Leonard, Scott & Co. of 79 Fulton Street, New York, we are indebted for the June number of Blackwood's Magazine.

What will we do with it?—By Pisistratus.—Book I.—Chapters I. to VIII. New Sea-Side Studies.—No. I. Scenes of Clerical Life.—No. II.—Mr Gilfil's Love Story.—Part IV. American Explorations: China and Japan. The Athelings; or, The Three Gifts.—Part the Last, Sir Francis Palgrave and his Books.
