CHINA.

Capture of Governor Yeh and establishment of a new Viceroy in Canton.—We have news from Canton to January 14.

In consequence of the capture of Commissioner Yeh and the Tartar General-in-Chief, the allies have proclaimed the first mandarin Viceroy of Canton, assisted by two Commissioners, English and French.

Treasure, consisting of eleven millions of francs, has been lent to the provisional government at heavy interest.

Plunder has been forbidden, and the inhabitants, re-assured, have re-entered the city. An audience has been demanded of the Emperor, to settle a treaty of commerce.

The loss of the allied forces is about twenty killed.

Commissioner Yeh and the Tartar Commander-in-chief will remain on board the English frigate until such time as the decision of Lord Elgin and Baron Gros shall be made known, as to what is to be done with these important prisoners.

Capture of the Treasury.—For six days the Western gate had been open, and exit had been denied to neither men nor treasure. Surely there could be nothing left to reward the captors. How can we strain our minds to comprehend the stolid, stupid confidence of these Chinese officials? The Treasury was full of silver, as full probably as it ever was. As many as fifty-two boxes, which a man could not singly lift, were found, and sixty-eight packets of solid ingots. There was also a store-house of the most costly mandarin dresses, lined with sables and rare furs, and there was a room full of copper cash. Now a strange scene occurred. The instructions were to bring away any bullion, but to touch nothing else. The order was obeyed with a strange and self-denying fidelity.

The soldiers and officers with difficulty turned their eyes away from the rich dresses. But how to remove the heavy load of bullion. Crowds had assembled in front, and a happy thought occurred to one of the officers. "A dollar's worth of cash to every Coolie who will help to carry the silver to the English camp." In a moment the crowd dispersed in search of their bamboo poles, and in another moment there were a thousand volunteer Cantonese contending for the privilege of carrying for an enemy their city's treasure. With their stipulated strings of cash around their necks, away they trudged with the English soldiers and the Sycee silver.

INDIA.

The Rebels in Lucknow Fighting among themselves.—The Bombay has arrived, with letters and papers to the 28th December.

The rebels in Lucknow are fighting among themselves. An immense body of the villains is concentrated in Lucknow and its suburbs. Sir James Outram holds his ground at the Alumbagh, awaiting the arrival of the Commander in Chief, who is himself awaiting the arrival of a heavy siege train, upon receiving which, he will advance on the capital of Oude.

Alexandria, Feb. 16.—The Bengal has just arrived at Suez, and brings the following intelligence. Sir Colin Campbell had defeated the rebels at Futtyghur, and was waiting for a heavy siege train from Agra, on arrival of which he would move with his whole force, in concert with Jung Bahadoor, on Oude.

Defeat of the Rebels.—The Commander in Chief moved on the 14th January, with the head quarters of his army, to a position known, occupied up to that time by Walpole's Brigade. That corps had been previously thrown forward to the Ganges, for the purpose of constructing a bridge at a point opposite the confluence of that river with Rungghur. Brigadier Walpole completed the required bridge and crossed the Ganges by it into Rohilcund. The Commander in Chief reviewed and inspected the brigade previous to its departure for Bareilly, whither it was to march for the purpose of clearing the city of the rebels under Khan Bahadoor Khan.

Sir Colin Campbell himself did not intend entering Rohilcund with the main body till he received from Agra a siege train, to be escorted down by her Majesty's 38th. The rebels who passed from Kohilcund into the Moozuffernugger district on the 30th January, were beaten by Captain Boisragon, and driven back across the river.

The Calpee rebels are still in force, it is said, under the leadership of the Nena Sahib, and that this Chief is threatening us in the direction of Nagotee. If this be, the gradual concentration of columns from Jubbulpore, Newa, and Mehoore, will soon put an end to this resistance.

An engagement took place between Captain Montgomery, the superintendent of police at Ahmednuggur, and a gang of Bheels in the district of Chahelore, on the road to Malagamur. Capt. Montgomery, three other officers and fifty men were wounded.

Alexandria, Feb. 18.—The Calcutta and China mails leave to-day with intelligence from Calcutta to the 25th of January, Madras 9th; Canton 14th, Hong Kong 15th.

The news from the Commander-in-chief's camp is to the 15th, when he crossed the river, and was moving towards Bareilly.

The Coolies had risen in great numbers.

The Commissioners with a party of Sikhs had been obliged to retreat before them.

Reinforcements had been sent from Midnapore. There is a report that the great Zemindars have offered to surrender on condition of immunity.

Sir Colin Campbell was waiting at Cawn-pore for a heavy siege train from Agra, on the arrival of which he would move with his whole force, in concert with Jung-Bahadoor, on Oude.

The ex-king of Delhi still suffers from fever.

The Cantonese were returning to the city. The blockade has not yet been raised.

EUROPE.

ENGLAND.—Resignation of the British Ministry.—The vote of the House of Commons, on Friday night, conveyed so direct a censure upon the conduct of Lord Palmerston's administration that it became evident at once that the only course for the Cabinet to pursue was immediate resignation. The Premier accordingly summoned a Cabinet Council, on Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of discussing the position of affairs, and the ministers agreed unanimously that the seals of office must be placed at the disposal of Her Majesty. Little time was lost in consultation, and, in the course of the afternoon Lord Palmerston had an interview with the Queen, at Buckingham Palace, and tendered his resignation of office.

Lord Derby has undertaken the task of forming an administration, notwithstanding the difficulties arising from the disorganised state of the Conservative party, which seem to stand in the way. Having accepted office, we understand he forthwith endeavoured to find strength and support out of the pale of his own immediate party, and applied to Mr Gladstone to assist him in forming an Administration.

Mr Griffiths, the distinguished Irish civil engineer, is to be made a baronet.

The elder of the Oude Princes in England died on Thursday night. He was brother to the King and general of the Oude native force.

The Rev. George E. L. Colton, master of Marlborough College, has been appointed to the Bishopric of Calcutta, vacant by the death of the late Dr. Wilson. It is in contemplation to constitute a see of Agra.

The Baptist denomination propose to establish, in the name of General Havelock, and in connexion with their college in Regent's park, two scholarships for Indian science. A bust or portrait of the General will adorn the college hall or examination room.

The new title of Sir Frederick Thesiger is to be Lord Woodstock.

The Viceroy of Egypt has taken a step in relation to the Suez Canal which must produce a speedy decision on one side or the other. He has presented a Note to the Porte which will extort the sanction of the Turkish Government to the scheme, or, in case of refusal, shows that he will authorize the undertaking of his own pleasure.

The husband of the English Princess, being obliged, as all Prussian princes have been, to work at some mechanical trade, selected to be a printer, and has long been a capital hand at the case.

Rome.—A letter from Rome, of the 12th says:—"Another prince of the church, Cardinal Louis Gazzoli, died yesterday, after a very short illness. The deceased was at the head of the Order of Deacons."

Life Association of Scotland.

FOUNDED 1838.

EMPOWERED BY ROYAL CHARTER AND ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

Subscribed Capital, £400,000 Sterling.

Annual Income, 125,000 do.

Chairman, Sir Jas. Forrest, Bart., of Comiston

The Life Association of Scotland which has now extended its operations to British North America, is specially Empowered by its Act of Parliament for Life Assurance in the Colonies, and is enabled to offer facilities and advantages to residents there.

While thus affording facilities superior to what most other offices can offer, the Association is not of recent origin or of limited business and resources. It is one of the most extensive and successful amongst British Assurance Offices, and policy holders in the British American Provinces have the benefit of the large annual business transacted in Great Britain and Ireland, and the ample and constantly accumulating funds now yielding an income of upwards of £125,000 sterling, per annum.

Last year the new transactions exceeded those of any other office in Europe.

The policy holders incur none of the risks of partnership, they are free from all responsibility, and the sums assured are guaranteed.

The whole Constitution, Regulations and System of business are framed in the most liberal and popular spirit.

The policies as now being issued are free from many of the restrictions commonly imposed on assured lives, and confer unusual and important privileges, far beyond what have hitherto been granted by Assurance Offices in North America; and after some years the policies become nearly absolute and indefeasible securities for sums assured—the assured being protected against accidental forfeiture, and against harsh proceedings on the part of the office in the event of omission to pay the premium.

A share of the profits of the business is allocated every year to all participating policy holders of five years standing, and is applied in reducing their next premiums. A large reduction of the premiums is thereby effected. The association has allocated profits at thirteen successive annual periods, and the annual return of profit to policy holders of the first series has now reached 35 per cent of the premiums—that is, the policy holders are required to pay only 13s per £1 of their premiums.

The rates of premium are moderate, and until the time of participation in the profits a policy holder for £1,000 sterling or upwards, need pay only one half of the annual premium, the other half remaining unpaid at interest as long as the policy holder pleases.

The Association's business in North America is under the charge of a Board of Directors at Montreal for the Canadas; at Halifax for Nova Scotia; and at Saint John for New Brunswick.
