

Jack.—Why then you must know, my lads, when the brave Admiral cast anchor in the port of Heaven—no, when he knocked at the gate, I mean—the Officer on duty called out—who are you, and what's your name? I came from England, said the Admiral, and my name is NELSON—NELSON!—What! was you Commander of King George's Fleet at the battle of the Nile?—Yes, I was—At Copenhagen?—Yes—At Trafalgar?—Yes, to be sure I was—Then, said the Officer on duty, walk in, there's good birth for you, an please you, my Lord—you are a good fellow, and, we have been told, was always a seaman's friend—very pensive).

Sailor.—O! cheer up messmate don't be melancholy—our brave Commander is more happier than never. Go home to Kitty, and she'll comfort you; but first take a chew of tobacco—bl—t my eyes, but your welcome.

Mr. RYAN,

In order that no person may in future plead ignorance of the following Act and Regulations—You are hereby requested to publish the same in the FREDERICTON TELEGRAPH.

AN ACT to authorise the Justices of the Sessions, in several Counties of this Province to make regulations for the weighing of HAY within such Counties where it may be found necessary to erect machines for that purpose. Passed the 8th February, 1799.

I. BE it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that from and after the passing of this Act, the Justices of the General Sessions of the Peace for the several Counties in this Province, except the County of St. John, be, and hereby are authorised and empowered, if they think fit, to erect, or give permission for erecting Machines for the weighing of Hay in such Town or Parish as they from time to time shall think necessary, and to make and ordain such rules and regulations, and establish such rates and allowances to the owners and proprietors of the said Hay Machines in their respective Counties as they may judge necessary for the better government and management of the same; and that the said Justices shall and may affix such penalties not exceeding Ten Pounds, as they may think necessary for the carrying into execution such rules and regulations, and for the establishing such rates and allowances so by them to be made and established; such penalties to be recovered on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County where the penalty shall be incurred, and to be levied by warrant of distress and sale of the offender's goods, one half to the informer, and the other half to the use of the Poor of the Town or Parish where the offence shall be committed.

REGULATIONS.

At a Court of General Sessions of the Peace held at Fredericton, in and for the County of York, the 15th day of June, 1804.

PURSUANT to a Law of this Province passed in the 39th year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to authorise the Justices of the Sessions in several Counties of this Province to make regulations for the weighing of Hay within such Counties where it may be found necessary to erect machines for that purpose."

PERMISSION is given to Mr. EDWARD WINSLOW MILLER to erect a Machine in Fredericton, for the purpose of weighing of Hay—And he is authorised and empowered to demand and receive from the owner or seller of such Hay at the rate of Two Pence per Hundred for all Loads of Fifteen Hundred weight and under, and at the rate of One penny half-penny per Hundred for all Loads exceeding Fifteen Hundred, that may be sold in Fredericton, between the bridge at Dr. EARLE'S and Phillis's Creek, which shall be weighed at the said Machine, and a Ticket shall be produced expressive of the exact weight thereof, signed by the weigher, and if any person or persons shall presume to sell or purchase any Load or Loads of Hay without such Ticket so to be obtained, or shall in any manner contravene these regulations, he shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay the sum of Twenty Shillings to be recovered and applied as by Law directed. And the Court further ordain that this regulation shall continue and be in full force for Fourteen Years and no longer.—And the Court further ordain that the said EDWARD WINSLOW MILLER do give Bond to the Treasurer of the County in the penal sum of Fifty Pounds for the due performance of this order, and that he also be bound to give the necessary attendance between the hours of Sunrise and Sunset, to carry the same into effect.

Extract from the Minutes,
G. CLOPPER, Clk.

I do therefore give public Notice, that I have at great expense erected a complete Machine for weighing of Hay, on a Lot on the Bank at Fredericton, assigned to me for that purpose by His Excellency the Governor in Council, and that I have given bond with sufficient sureties in the penal sum of Fifty Pounds for the due performance of the order, as by the said Regulations is required. And I further give Notice, that, if after the day of the date hereof, any person or persons shall presume to sell or purchase any Load or Loads of Hay without weighing, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said Act and Regulations, they shall be prosecuted as the law directs.

EDWARD W. MILLER.
FREDERICTON, OCT. 18th, 1806.
