

Some Things Co-eds Have Said

"Grace doesn't like it a bit to hear him called Rosebud."

* * *

Lately the blinds in the Physics lecture room just go up.

* * *

"Oh! I heard a great one on May Gillen and Ralph Neill at the Freshmen's drive, but I don't like to give it to Wanagan."

* * *

"Well, there's one boy in College Georgie likes better than Clark—so there!"

* * *

"I said, 'Hello Maggie, how's Lankie?' and it made her hopping mad."

* * *

Don't say anything to Lil. Smith about Pippin. They just happened to go to that drive and he just happened to sit by her and it just happened—

Echoes From Basket-Ball Trip

What is a Cordial welcome?

"Little Sheenie McK——t, the wee miserable Freshman."

"Foul on Perc! Aha, Perc, I caught you that time!"

"The Y. M. C. A. smuggler."

"Look at that long fellow's small legs."

"All ready Little feller?"

Young lady—"Mr. Loggie's all right. He's the nicest boy I've met up to college."

De Omnibus Rebus

'09—"How often does Harry Smith go to see Miss Parker?"

'11—"How often? He just goes to two places, college and her house."

* * *

Clark, seeing Miss Ryan talking to the printer—"You know what I told you! When you meet him let him do the talking! Don't you say anything! He'll be sure to get something on us for Wanagan?"

* * *

Miss Stothart as Landry enters room—"Here comes another cherub."

* * *

Normal maid—"Oh, Holly took Flossie to the moving pictures!"

* * *

San. learned the dodge,
'Twas all he required
He found a H—
All that he desired.

* * *

Rev. — in sermon said—"Some go to the Bee and get honey, and some go to the Bee and get stung." Hoyt and MacAulay take notice.

* * *

Bennett—"I went home alone from the Trial, but that's not saying I haven't got a girl."

* * *

Miss Otty—"I am only a Freshie, but I have brains enough to grasp one fact." Strange indeed.
