

A chiel's amang ye takin' notes,
An' faith he'll print 'em.

Some of the girls had fits (Fitz) up at "greening" last week.

* * *

Prince to Dickson—"Isn't Miss McElvaney a mighty nice girl?"

* * *

Renault (seeing a flask of water boiling)—"Suppose de ting she's leak."

* * *

Miss Paget—"Oh's there's no use in falling. There's no one to pick me up"

* * *

Bunnie (delightedly, after a visit to the Pond)—"That's the kind of a girl to have—invited me over to tea Sunday night."

* * *

Firth (in lecture)—"Look, Sheenie, there's Miss Jardine back there!"

Sheenie—"Gracious! I must go and tell Darb!"

* * *

Mt. A, Student seeing the greening
"I wish we had a department of Forestry in our University"

* * *

Co-ed — "How is Loggie, Miss Crocker?"

Miss C (with tears in her eyes)—
"Oh, Loggie and I are all smashed—"
She couldn't finish for sobbing.

* * *

Davy to Editor of last Wanagan—
"You're not as stupid as you think you are."

* * *

Miss Hallet (playing against Sheenie in basket-ball)—"This is the first time
I ever chased a man."

* * *

Miss Flanagan (tobogganing)—"Home is nothing like this."

Miss McElveney—"Mary Hoar?
Who's she?"

Co ed—"Lucy Sherwood's chum."

* * *

Miss Corbett—"If Billy doesn't teach me something I'll eliminate him."

* * *

Miss L. Smith (rushing into book exchange)—"I want my bill."

* * *

Miss G-b-s n says she wouldn't scatter all her Spice(r)s in the stream

* * *

Miss Otty says she is not responsible for what she says in her sleep.

* * *

Gleaner.] Mr. A. T. Cushing of St. John is among the guests at the Queen today.

* * *

Rastus stakes his reputation that he could go home with Miss D. C— if he wanted to.

* * *

The Freshette who is interested in you plays basket-ball, Sheenie.

* * *

Miss G. Robinson—"I wouldn't object to marrying a minister."

Miss McIntosh—"I don't believe I would either."

Two more chances for you, Theo-logues! Get busy!

* * *

Senior (speaking of Co-eds talking in English lecture)—"I wouldn't think so much of it if they were Freshettes—they haven't got any better sense—but when it comes to Seniors spoiling a good lecture for themselves and everybody else, I haven't any patience with them"
