

Who is Flat-foot? Ask any Freshman.

* * *

Miss O. Stothart—"I think I'd make a dandy minister's wife."

* * *

Cliff—"The Co-eds are in the reading room; I hear them cackling."

* * *

Miss D. Currie says one Rideout on Queen Street is enough to last a healthy girl for a year.

* * *

Miss C.—"Couldn't they find anyone better than that cheap article, Johnson, to roast me about?"

* * *

Therault was more than tickled because there was an "Anna" joke on him in the NORMAL LIGHT.

* * *

Billy on viewing a $195 diamond ring—"Oh, I can get them cheaper than that in Boston."

* * *

Miss L. Smith is content with a Pippin, and Miss Vanwart with an Alexander, but Miss Machum wants a whole Orchard.

* * *

Soph—"Why isn't Grimmer roasted about Miss Fish?"

Junior—"Oh shaw! That's getting wearysome!"

* * *

Fair Normalite—"I'm going to Campbellton at Easter."

Firth—"Oh, by George, then I'm going too!"

* * *

Co-ed—"Doesn't Miss Aiton flirt awfully with the boys in English lectures? Dolan and Allan seem to be the favorites—too bad Sherwood is not a Freshman."

Sweetness and happiness combined make Bliss.

* * *

Will any one tell Fraser who A. Dixon is?

* * *

Mary Hoar has a very kissable mouth, hasn't he? Wake up, Mary."

* * *

Miss McE—gazing wistfully into McLean's studio window—"I wonder how much those pictures of Prince cost, I'd like to get one"

* * *

* * *

Miss Everett in despair—"I thought Billie was my last chance and now I've lost him."

* * *

Sheenie (when Co-eds were jollyng him about Miss Hallett)—"She's a darn fine girl—just the kind I'd like to have for a sister."

* * *

A 'fessor now takes R's place in Miss Otty's sleep talks.

* * *

Miss S.—"Whenever I think of Billie's engagement I just go frantic."

* * *

Miss Dobson speaking about play, —I wanted a mushy part, but what's the use of mushing a girl.

* * *

Co-ed—"Zula gets off some good jokes but they're all about Sheenie."

* * *

Miss Nellie Robinson regrets to say that McNutt has been sick ever since the Reception—had a relapse.
