paper when patronizing our advertisers.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY, 1896.

—THE FRATERNAL ECHO is the only paper of the kind published in Canada.

It is the cheapest Fraternal paper published in America.

It is our object to make it a welcome visitor in every family.
This can only be done by our society friends sending in the news items of their lodges. Remember, your brothers like to hear how you are doing and it encourages them in the great work.

It would also assist materially if each subscriber would send us a new subscriber. Try it.

—We have sent out thousands of sample copies. If you have received one there is no guarantee that you will get more. The best way is to enclose 10 cents, postage stamps or coin, and get the paper for one year.

RENEWALS.

If your Subscriptions expires with this number of the FRATERNAL ECHO please renew at once. Send in your Subscription promptly and get your friends to subscribe.
Surely it is worth the yearly Subscription price—10 cents.

—We invite correspondence from those interested in fraternal societies anywhere, and will be pleased to receive short original papers on general fraternal subjects, subject, of course, to the approval of the editor. Our columns are open to all interested in fraternal work.

Among our callers this month was Bro. G. T. Whitenect of Victoria Temple. It was not idle curiosity that brought Bro. W.— He came with a list of subscribers. We would like to see more of the Brethern do the same thing.

Bro. Whitenect is still in the business of House Painting, and can be found at the old stand.

It is surprising the amount of Room paper handled in St. John each year; more especially the quantity sold by Bro. A. Mc-Arthur at his Store 584 Main St.
During the past month they have been kept on the jump to attend to the rush, and it still continues. Bro. McArthur claims to have one of the best assorted stocks in St. John City at prices that defy competition.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions, taken from the Lisbon Enterprise show that the order of Knights of Pythias understand the meaning of Fraternity.

At a regular meeting of Columbia Ledge, No 26, K. of P., the following resolutions of respect to the memory of Solomon Dean, deceased Feb 18, 1896, were adopted as the sentiment of the Lodge.

Whereas, our circle has again been broken and another of our members called to his last resting place, a brother who was far from his home and relatives, yet not without friends, a Brother whose life was one of moral worth among his friends and fully appreciated by them.

Therefore, be it Resolved, that in the death of this Brother Coumbta Lodge has lost a member worthily of our fullest confidence, a member commendable conduct in the daily walk of life.

Therefore, Resolved, That we extend to his bereoved relatives, who were unable to attend the last sad rites that hid from earthly view their loved one's our heartfelt sympathy in their hour of bereavment. And further,

Resolved That we extend to Union Lodge, of St. John, N. B., our brotherly thanks for the many kindnesses shown our deceased Brother in his late sickness.

Resolved. That the emblems of mourning be displayed in Lodge room, and that a copy of these resolutions be also entered upon the Lodge records, and a copy sent The Lisbon Enterprise for publication.

It is only fair to the members of New Brunswick lodge, No. 1 of this city, to say that the duty of attending and caring for Bro.
Dean in his late illness was equally divided between New Brunswick and Union lodges.

—A visit to Goldsmith's Hall, No 48 King Street, will reveal one of the best fitted stores in the Jewelry line in St. John. Brothers of Fraternal Orders will find a choice assortment of Emblematic Pins to choose from.

—Purchasers of hats would do well to examine the stock of A.
Ingraham, Hatter, Mill St., Portland Bridge. The stock is well assorted and of all the latest styles. A specialty is the manufacture of Uniform Caps. He has lately filled several larg orders in that line.

A Dead Sure Thin

"Say, Brother Smith, how is it that your lodge is taking in so many new members, while my lodge has not had an application for six months?"

"Mine frient and brudder, you don't understandt de pishness."

"What has that got to do with it?
We have fine speakers in our lodge, who urge the members each week to work for the Order, and their speeches are sublime."

"Yes, dot vas fine; but my dear frient, did you efer hunt ducks mit a brass band?"

"What do you mean?"

"It is dis way. Ef you want new members you dont want to serenade dem wid fine speeches, but yoost capture them! You must work as hard as everything. Ven you court a pretty girl you yoost look in her eyes and make her believe de moon is made of green cheese, and she is yours if you keep up to de front! Ven our lodge wants a new member, we get out and hustle. We fasten ourselves to his button-hole, and we don't let him escape—oh, no! We sthay py him, keep at him, talk to him till he can't see and shake him till his suspenders crack! Ef we dont get him we bury him wid honors and look for annuder victim! In dis way our lodge grôws fast by our keeping to de front, and doing our own hustling! Different lodges have different ways of getting candidates, but ours is a dead sure thing."—
