

Things We Want to Know

- If Eggs is stale? Yea-yuh!
- What "A" Class were thinking as they came down stairs at 2.45?
- Why Louis said: "Won't it be fine to have a full editors' meeting again?"
- Why Miss McIntosh got such a wrong opinion of Cato's brain?
- Who are "Honey," "Sweetie," "Cantalope" and "Sugar?" Ask Jo-hon!
- When Miss McIntosh began to be interested in Sterling, and which one it is?
- Where is the right place to put a safety-pin?
- How Cato knew Vella wasn't praying?
- If the bridge is too windy for Dick?
- If Dot has to wait until she gets her skating boots sharpened?
- The double purpose of Archie's crutches?
- Which part of Squeak gets to school first?
- If the one who wrote "B2" Class notes thinks she is included in the beauty list?
- Why Miss Clarke moved Dot Nichols to the back of the room?

RISIBLE RUBBISH

Dr. Foster (referring to Beatty reported to have gone to Minto)—"Ah, a patriot! He has left his country for his country's good."

Beatty (hearing of remark)—"That would be a good joke if it had a few of the whiskers shaved off it!"

Mush (in pictures to M-r-n S-i-h)—"That Barb Fenety chews gum so hard that I can hear her in the middle of the night."

Deac (trying to pull off something)—"If I took a dollar out of your pocket what would I be?"

Blucher—"A magician!"

A TRUE ONE

Do (to Skinny)—"John I (am) cantalope. Can you help me?"

Skinny—"If you ask me, I think you have water-(melon) on the (coco) nut."

NOTES FROM SCIENCE ROOM

A little dog came into our room the other day looking for "Bones."
