

Chanticleer Dance

The bids were all out for the big dance on Tuesday, January 23rd, and not one single thing ready. We went down after 4 p.m., and after much hard labor, a good deal of "Jewing," a heap of persuasion, the use of a toboggan and Gordon's "gab," finally got the Old Gaiety" looking real dusty.

Radiance was coming through the ticket window as appeared with the "baby feed" for Gordon and Archie (Nota Bena) were counting tickets with Helen looking demurely(?) on.

Everything went fine until Tom in her "ramblings" discovered that the place was dry as—(I don't swear, neither does Tom). Then came the argument as to who would get it. Tom gave Archie the preference, but as we had only the coffee pots to get it in he was afraid he'd dirty his feet or pants or sumtin'. Then the "noble hero" (.) (Dot thinks so) volunteered to go to the hot dog place to get it, to our great relief.

The check room a great advantage with its one small light, and it is rumored that Muriel spent a pleasant fifteen minutes hunting for her coat. Wonder if he minded ??? I imagine some of our patrons would be well away on a Chinese puzzle.

Things We Want to Know

How Helen U-d-r-i-l is progressing in her private French lessons.

Why Nick is always singing "When Frances Dances With Me?"

Where all the rubbers in Miss Clarke's room come from?

What F. H. S. will do without Jim Wilson?

Who left the book on "How to make bows (beaux) on Dr. Foster's desk. desk.

How and when Jack froze his ears?

Why Walter left the "Woman Hater Club?"

Why Archie is always to be seen in Mr Chapman's room?

Why Hornet stayed till the tenth band one Friday night?

Why the C 2 girls wear bands on their hair Thursday afternoons only?

Where Sussex Corner is?

Why Hickey made such a hit with the girls?

Why the girls thought Skinny was bashful?

What Bud meant when he asked Cato how it tasted?

Why Mr. Rouse proposed that two of his pupils should leave the room for a little chat?

Who are Dumbell and Coco?