

We want to know if Mr. Titus always had such a mania for dates.

---

Mr. Titus—"Now take your books and doctor up your maps."

Helen Crowe (undertone)—"Mine needs a surgical operation."

---

Miss MacIntosh—"What is the chief characteristic of French cooking?"

Voice from Class—"You don't get enough of it."

---

A Ryan (during literature)—"The legions were all full."

---

Dr. Foster—"We would like better English but less of it."

---

Bertie (to Bunny)—"You are pretty good at picking out 'hims.'"

---

Max Hunter (after Saturday's game)—"Give the famous P. N. S. a dose of paragoric."

---

H-l-n C-o-e (after a strenuous history period)—"He must have sat up all night with the baby."

---

Bart—"Draw down the blind, Mills. You fellows look hot."

---

Tom—"Know any jokes Helen."

Helen—"Sure, I'm one."

---

A man went into a restaurant and ordered tongue and chicken. The Swiss waiter returned, shrugged his shoulders helplessly and said, "Tongue iss no more; schicken never vas."

---

THE WHOLE SHOW

A travelling salesman visited a small town and sold the proprietor of the general store an order of clothing.

When the merchandise arrived, it was not as represented and the merchant returned it.

The wholesale house attempted to collect and drew a sight draft on the merchant through the local bank. The bank returned it unhonored.