Class Prophecy, 1924

Last night we were "listening in,"
 There came to our ears a terrible din.
 We heard a noise—Station F. H. S.
 (We were rather startled, we must confess)
 Station F. H. S. broadcasting from
 The thriving town of Fredericton.
 The next number on our programme,
 This night of June 23rd, ten-thirty p. m.,
 Is a detailed account, we hope it won't bore,
 Of the fortunate class of the year '24.

Now friends, teachers and classmates
 Lend us your ears and we'll try to relate
 The tale that we heard o'er the radio late.
