

had eaten so much that we wondered how they would ever be able to play basketball the next day, Mr. Rouse acted as toastmaster, with toasts and speeches by captains, coaches and managers of the teams, also Miss Thompson and Mr. McFarlane of the Normal School.

---

ATHLETICS

P. N. S., 28—F. H. S., 38

The opening game of the season was played in the Armoury Gym. on Saturday, Jan. 26. In the first period the light High School team ran up a large lead. Their combination was superior to Normal's, and their shooting more accurate. In the second half High School used substitutes and the scoring was about equal. The last five minutes of the game found Normal staging a strong come-back. They netted four baskets in that time. Babbitt was high scorer for High School.

---

U. N. B. FRESHMEN, 36—F. H. S., 52

High School's second victory of the season was an exhibition game played in the University Gymnasium. The Freshmen depended mainly on individual play and were ineffective against the speedy combining play of their light opponents. Hickson was high scorer.

---

P. N. S., 17—F. H. S., 15

The second game between the two rivals of the city was played in the Normal Gym. In the first period play was about even, but the High shooting was away off, and at half-time Normal led 11-5.

In the second period High School were superior to their heavy opponents and except for poor shooting would easily have overcome Normal's lead. Towards the end of the game, with High School but two points behind and outclassing them Normal played for time. The bell rang with the score standing 17-15. Boyd was high scorer for High School.

---

ST. J. H. S., 34—F. H. S., 32

On Friday, Feb. 1, the old rivals clashed on the High School floor in the Armoury. High School took an early lead, showing superior combination. About four or five minutes after the start Dugan was removed for four personals. Douglass took his place and worked hard, but could not combine with the others as the regular centre could. High School worked awfully hard but did not combine. St. John overcame their lead and at half-time were two points to the good. Hickson was sick and forced to leave the floor before the first half was over. Minus two regulars High School worked hard to keep the score down. Refreshed by the rest St. John started right in, and playing pretty basketball piled up quite a lead. Hickson was back