

HE'S NO STUDENT

Miss Gregory, explaining kinds of nouns—"Student" would not be a common noun for this class because W-l-h is in it."

* * * * *

A FINE SEAT

Mr. Page to A2—"If this class doesn't behave I will sit on you hard."

* * * * *

THE REAL STUFF

When James Fitz-James of the "Lady of the Lake"
Awoke and sought the moonshine pure,
He sure knew what kind to take
For he went back to bed and dreamed no more.

* * * * *

A PHENOMENON

Mr. Miller, during landscape explanation—"Some evening when the sun is shining on a clear calm day—"

* * * * *

HOW PROFANE!

Mr. McFarlane trying to pronounce damaging—"Dam—dam—ing—damaging."

* * * * *

GONE!

Miss Thompson, giving first lesson for this year to B, on factors—"Gone, Gone! to the far regions of oblivion."

* * * * *

AFTER THE CORN ROAST

R. Limerick—"Nactus idoneum tempestatem—Having obtained a fresh storm—"

Mr. Page—"You mean fresh corn."