

DOROTHY GRACE MAY COATES

Dot entered F. H. S. from Smythe Street School. She has always been willing to lend a helping hand in all school activities and in "B" Class was class editor of this famous journal. We were so well pleased with her efforts that this year we elected her class prophetess. Dot will study nursing.

HELEN LOUISE CORBETT

Came from Canso, Nova Scotia. She is of a rather quiet nature and has taken no distinctively active part in the more frivolous pursuits of the school life. Helen is a member of the Commercial Class.

DONALDINA DOROTHY CUMMING

Was, previous to entering F. H. S., a pupil at Charlotte Street School. A quiet and industrious student, Dolly has been liked by all. She will be claimed by the nursing profession.

LILLIAN BOYLE CUMMING

Like her sister came from C. S. S. She is a good student and has always done her bit for all school functions. Next year Lillian will become a Normalite.

HAZEL LYDIA CURRIE

Before entering F. H. S. attended Smythe Street School. Hazel has taken no active part in the school's social life but busied herself with her studies. Next year she will attend Normal.

KATHARINE DELONG

Kay came to us from Smythe Street School. She has always been a willing worker and has done her part in all the school's social activities. Kay will become a nurse.

JENNIE MYRTLE GERTRUDE DYKEMAN

Came from Model School. She is a quiet girl but an earnest student. Next year Jennie intends to go to Normal.

LEILA EILEEN CHESLEY ELGEE

Was a pupil at Charlotte Street School before coming to F. H. S. Leila decided to lead a business life so she became a Commercial student.
